Form Feeling:

The Feeling of the Form Joseph R. Metz, 2025-11-15 The Feeling of the Form explores the concept of Einfuehlung the projection of human feelings and life into inanimate forms developed by German aesthetic theorists in the late nineteenth century The word would be translated into English as empathy and migrate in meaning from the aesthetic to the interpersonal sphere Combining close analysis and cultural para history The Feeling of the Form reads literary texts by Georg Buechner Adalbert Stifter and Rainer Maria Rilke alongside philosophical texts by Robert Vischer Vernon Lee and Theodor Lipps to uncover the often uncanny intersections of aesthetic and interpersonal empathy Traveling both backward and forward in time from the 1873 invention of Einfuehlung Joseph R Metz traces the diverse and multidirectional exchanges among subjects and objects feelings and forms and selves and others that together yield an expanded understanding of Einfuehlung empathy and the connections between them In its surprising juxtapositions The Feeling of the Form also shows how nineteenth and early twentieth century texts prefigure a wide array of later thought including affect theory other minds artificial intelligence object oriented ontology and cinema and video game aesthetics

On Form ,2008-09-18 What is form Why does form matter In this imaginative and ambitious study Angela Leighton assesses not only the legacy of Victorian aestheticism and its richly resourceful keyword form but also the very nature of the literary She shows how writers for two centuries and more have returned to the idea of form as something which contains the secret of art itself She tracks the development of the word from the Romantics to contemporary poets and offers close readings of among others Tennyson Pater Woolf Yeats Stevens and Plath to show how form has provided the single most important way of accounting for the movements of literary language itself She investigates for instance the old debate of form and content of form as music or sound shape as the ghostly dynamic and dynamics of a text as well as its long association with the aestheticist principle of being for nothing In a wide ranging and inventive argument she suggests that form is the key to the pleasure of the literary text and that that pleasure is part of what literary criticism itself needs to answer and convey
