Why? I'm glad you ask. Because it implies your knowledgeability. When it comes to 'the governments', there are a myriad of government bodies (90) administering (91) a variety of (92) economic and societal activities (93). Okay, vitally important activities. Are you happy? LOL

In Canada, there are three levels of governments, which are federal provincial and municipal (94). They carry out different policies (95) and render different services that are closely related to the citizens.

There are also _____ (96) from the U.S. such as the FBI, CIA, IRS, NSA, NASA and so on. They _____ (97). To be able to work there, you need to _____ (98) intelligence and expertise because the job requirement is _____ (99). But that doesn't mean you can't if you really want to because the likelihood of getting a job there is just slim, not zero. Therefore, if you want to, you should embark on studying English now because it's definitely a necessity for your success, irrespective of what field you are pursuing.

So now you know the governments are not as simple as it sounds. It's actually much broader _____ (100).

(90) government 'organization' in general
(91) manage/take care of
(92) many/different
(93) easy but important

(94) related to city
(95) implement policies

(96) specific organizations belong to the governments
