The Druze and their Faith in Tawhid Anis Obeid,2006-07-06 As a small sect that emerged from Islam over a thousand years ago the Druze religion and society has long been cloaked in a tradition of secrecy

Veiled from the outside world the religious tenets have been vulnerable to distortion misunderstanding and misrepresentation In this book Dr Anis Obeid a Druze layman provides a penetrating analysis of Druze scriptures and beliefs Tawhid Presenting a chronological narrative of the foundation and development of the faith he explains the historical conditions and religious rationale behind this closed religion The Druze faith is the product of Abrahamic monotheism as it coalesced with other philosophies belief systems and political structures of the West and the East and as Obeid maintains should be recognized for its core monotheism and not fundamentally different from Judaism Christianity or Islam He argues convincingly with examples and translations from the Druze scriptures only now accessible to a non initiate public that Tawhid is a progressive and dynamic spiritual process based on freedom of choice This rich exploration of their faith the author s appeal for a sincere cultural dialogue will resonate with a wide audience in the West and in the Middle East

A Faith Worth Believing, Living, and Commending Dennis Ngien,2008-03-01 The materials presented here are reflections on a variety of topics a belief in God s suffering and the pastoral implications of this Luther s theology of preaching practical approaches to evangelistic preaching pastoral advice on death and dying apologetic preaching in a post Christian culture on the model of Paul effective living in the power of the Holy Spirit striking a balance between enthusiastic service and fervent love the image of God s love in the Old Testament and personal exhortations Although this book was written on the balcony of my own study where reflection and meditation are carried out it is cognizant of ministry contexts where people s needs and struggles are most evident With anecdotes and analyses the readers will be enabled to discern the signs of divine transcendence in their lives and to apprehend or rather to be apprehended by the beauty of God s grace the abiding basis of our being and well being What has been written in this book reveals the heartbeat of a mentor who earnestly hungers for divine beauty and holiness a mentor whose hunger God eagerly fulfills just as he promises and a mentor who wishes this same fulfillment to happen for readers The basic assumption in this book is this a faith that is worth believing is a faith that is worth living and thus worth commending The book is also an exercise of faith seeking understanding understanding only God could supply It is written with the hope that it will lead readers from knowing God to loving him to enjoying him and finally to proclaiming him so that others will be brought into the orbit of God s inestimable grace Not until our hearts which God s heart touches touch the heart of others is our ministry complete and our life found pleasing to God
