Making the Heartland Quilt Douglas K. Monthly Bulletin of the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society, 1911 International Medical and Surgical Survey, 1921 The Essential Immigrant Dan Lacey, 1990 Lacey gives a persuasive argument for a more open immigration policy in the United States With a notable lack of bureaucratic jargon he explores America s evolving attitude toward immigrants referring extensively to the work of experts in politics and economics to illuminate myths and to demonstrate that mass migration has always been good for the U S economy Although he does not include a bibliography he does give the authors and titles of pertinent monographs within his text This book would be an excellent starting point for students researching the topic because it does not assume a great deal of background knowledge Essentials of Civilization Thomas Jesse Jones, 1929 The Jewish Immigrant Experience in Anzia Yezierska's Bread Givers and Mary Antin's The Promised Land Birgit Wieking, 2006-12-18 Thesis M A from the year 2006 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1 7 University of Hannover American Studies language English abstract I was born I have lived and I have been made over Is it not time to write my life s story It is because I understand my history in its larger outlines to be typical of many that I consider it worth recording My life is a concrete illustration of a multitude of statistical facts I am only one of many whose fate it has been to live a page of modern history We are the strands of the cable that binds the Old World to the New Antin PL13 5 2 I suddenly realized that I had come back to where I had started twenty years ago when I began my fight for freedom And now I realized that the shadow of the burden was always following me and here I stood face to face with it again But I felt the shadow still there over me It wasn t just my father but the generations who made my father whose weight was still upon me Yezierska BG295 7 3 These are two quotations by two immigrant women both experiencing an incisive and complete change in their young lives through the immigration from Eastern Europe to the United States of America at the end of the nineteenth century This thesis investigates their individual immigrant experience that they claim to be representative of the lives of many Immigration has always exerted a great influence on American life Towards the turn to the 20th century the United States was confronted with the largest stage of immigration in the nation s history From 1890 on a total of twenty million people entered the country until the 1920s cf Di Pietro Ifkovic 6 Immigrants at the time were mainly from Southern and Eastern Europe the largest groups were formed by Italians Hebrews Polish Germans and English cf Gabbacia 140 On the one hand the rapidly developing economic expansion 139 in the US required human labor on the other hand life in Europe was determined by famine and epidemics as well as political and religious persecution to outline briefly

the most important reasons for this big wave of migration The conflict between the immigrants expectations of a better life in the New World and the actual living conditions as well as the political climate the immigrants had to face in the United States has been treated in literature in many ways The examination of cultural or ethnic identity and the process of assimilation in this case Americanization and its effects are very important issues in immigration literature as well Americanization Studies ,1921 New York Court of Appeals. Records and Briefs. New York (State)., Essentials of Business English Benjamin John Campbell,Bruce Lafayette Vass,1915 Immigrant Medicine Patricia Frye Walker,Elizabeth Day Barnett,2007 Accompanying CD ROM contains patient guides and screening questionnaires in multiple languages P 4 of cover University Debaters' Annual ,1916 The Russian Immigrant Jerome Davis,1922 National Ideals and Problems Maurice Garland Fulton,1918
