

Fashions Fads & Fancies

Jessie Hamilton

William A. Steffen has the flair for designing hats with flowers and feathers. His brims which hint so fragrantly of the days to follow Easter and the early summer, when shopping is such a bore,—when one can only dream of strolling by the water's edge or donning chiffons for the afternoon tea and dinner dance, where hats are worn with flowers and wheat drooping to the waist and butterflies dangling here and there, as does this charming model of marvelous blues and gold and a soft rose brim lined with orchid chiffon designed by Steffen for lovely Edith Johnson.
