Gene Autry, 30 Years on the Road with Gene Autry Johnny Bond,2016-06-04 In 1940 when Johnny Bond went to work for Gene Autry as a member of the Jimmy Wakely Trio Autry was arguably the most popular entertainer in the country He was Number Four on the list of Hollywood s Top Ten Box Office Stars he had sold millions of records as one of the most popular recording artists of the 1930s and his Melody Ranch Show heard weekly over the CBS Radio Network sold billions of sticks of Doublemint Chewing Gum for its sponsor during a 17 year run He also performed before sellout crowds two shows a day for

21 straight days in New York's Madison Square Garden Johnny Bond was one of only a few members of the Autry troupe to participate in every phase of Gene's incredibly successful entertainment career And he has a story to tell lots of them actually Stories about a time before super highways when most roads were two lanes and went through the middle of all the towns large and small and when busses were not air conditioned At a time when there were only half a dozen cities in this country with populations in excess of one million Gene Autry took his show to America's heartland doing the one nighters those engagements booked just far enough apart to enable performers to drive from one venue to the next in a single day Johnny Bond was along for the ride and he tells what it was like when Gene Autry was at his peak in the late 1940s having to push through crowds going from bus to auditorium before the show and later to fight the same crowds back out to the bus after the show He also describes those last one nighters in the late 1950s when even with a small group of musicians there were more people on the stage than in the audience So buckle up and go along for the ride You will become part of a unique experience that has become what we refer to today as Americana looked the part of the quintessential cowboy along with his wife Dale Evans and his horse Trigger His versatile singing and acting abilities made him successful both on radio and on the screen Rogers came of age at a time when the singing cowboy was at the apex of his popularity and that was favorable because he actually got his start in show business as a singer In the early 30s he bounced around several groups as a country music singer before earning national attention as a member of the Sons of the Pioneers who were signed to Decca and had a couple of hits As a result when he first appeared in movies in 1935 it was usually in bit roles that required singing but when Gene Autry threatened to quit acting in 1938 Rogers was viewed as a suitable replacement for lead roles As it turned out he became the premiere singing cowboy in Autry s stead and from 1939 1954 he was one of the Top 10 Western stars in Hollywood and a Top 10 movie star overall during some of those years As Rogers evolved into the King of the Cowboys he became a pop culture icon and he was shrewd enough to capitalize on his image All sorts of Roy Rogers merchandise hit stores from action figures to comic strips and Rogers even banked on the popularity of his horse Trigger by featuring him enough to make the horse a household name as well Even today people can find the name Roy Rogers all over the place if only because he eventually had his name lent to a popular fast food chain in later years Gene Autry and Roy Rogers examines the lives and careers of two of America s most famous Western actors
