Levine, Jackie Hiltz, 2015-06-03 This text examines the Pacific War the Korean War and the Vietnam War from the perspective of those who fought the wars and lived through them The relationship between history and memory informs the book and each war is relocated in the historical and cultural experiences of Asian countries The Country of Memory Hue-Tam Ho Tai, 2001-10 Hue Tam Ho Tai s masterful collection of essays that explore how the past is being remade in contemporary Vietnam constitutes a welcome addition to the study of the larger problem of engineering memory especially in political cultures where the identity of the nation state is in a considerable state of flux This book also suggests that the commemorative fever that is sweeping Vietnam is about more than Vietnam s history It also has a great deal to do with the problems premodern cultures presented to those who promoted the creation of contemporary states In this regard both Vietnam and this book offer all scholars of nationalism and remembering in the West a fascinating perspective on their own nations John Bodnar Chancellors Professor of History at Indiana University from the Foreword Vietnamese Studies in a Multicultural World Xuan Thu Nguyen, 1994 America's Wars in Asia , Even though the cultural approach concerns itself with the local and the particular rather than with the abstract and universal it is inherently comparative Moreover it also relocates each war in the historical and cultural experiences of Asian countries themselves rather than seeing the war as merely a conflict between the United States and Asian nations
