Global Competitiveness Asian Firm

Dave Ulrich

Global Competitiveness Asian Firm:

The Global Competitiveness of the Asian Firm Hellmut Schuette, 2016-07-27 Twenty one authors from a variety of backgrounds analyse the global competitiveness of the Asian firm in different parts of the world and at different phases of their internationalisation process They find that the Asian firms emphasis on soft skills such as networking organisational learning and sharing stands in sharp contrast to the economic rationality of Western firms which stress individual performance measurement clearly defined responsibilities and accountability Asian firms face serious problems in adjusting their systems to the Western environment without losing their competitiveness

The Global Competitiveness of the Asian Firm Hellmut Schütte, 1994 Whilst each author looks at the topic of competitiveness from a different angle a common theme emerges the Asian firms emphasis on soft skills such as networking organisational learning and sharing This stands in sharp contrast to the economic rationality of Western firms stressing individual performance clearly defined responsibilities and measurable results

David Ulrich puts you inside the heads of Asia's top business executives, academics, and consultants to learn their strategies for building successful leadership and human capital in the region. The result is a potent mix of theory, research, and real-world practices that will prepare you to tackle the critical issues and paradoxes in the Asian business arena. Learn how Unilever Food Solutions Asia gives its workers clearly defined future goals. See what Microsoft Singapore is doing to develop sustainable talent. Each contributor's business ideas share a common component for succeeding in the Asian environment. Through firsthand guidance from these leaders on the frontlines of human capital and leadership development, Leadership in Asia shows you how to respect and work within family-centric enterprises while creating professional organizations. Recognize bureaucratic, hierarchical, and political complexity while creating flexible, agile, and simple organizations. Maintain grace, courtesy, and an Asian style while taking risks and demanding strong performance. Tomorrow's leaders will respond more rapidly to change and will have better responses to paradoxes. Leadership in Asia presents a survey of how these future leaders are being developed in one of the world's most important sectors.

Asian Firms Frank B. Tipton, 2007

Frank Tipton's book is a comparative study of the management structures of Asian firms. As Asian economies continue to expand, the management of Asian firms becomes ever more important, whether they are suppliers, customers, partners, or rivals. As the author argues, Asian firms are very different from their Western counterparts, and these differences reflect the variations in national history and institutions within which they operate. Asian Firms compares Chinese, Japanese, Korean, and Southeast Asian management structures and sets them in their historical and institutional context. Based on a wide range of interviews and material drawn from a variety of disciplines, the argument is framed by the sayings of the legendary strategist Sun Tzu and the renowned businessman Tao Zhu Gong. A series of case studies illustrate the strengths and weaknesses of the approaches of managers in each of the national traditions. Asian Firms asks, in each case, what Western managers can learn from Asian firms and what Asian firms can learn from each other. With a multidisciplinary approach and emphasis on practical lessons and tools, the book will be of great use and interest for managers It will also appeal to students and researchers of international business postgraduate management students in courses with a comparative or Asian emphasis as well as academics and researchers of Asian studies

Global Competitive Strategies in the New World Economy Hafiz Mirza,1998 This important book provides an exhaustive analysis of the strategic responses of transnational firms to current trends in the world economy specifically the trends towards globalization and regionalization The primary focus of this book is on the strategy of transnational firms particularly those from East Asia in the geographical regions of Europe North America and Asia including the European Union the North American Free Trade Agreement and the ASEAN Free Trade Area The contributors discuss protectionism and trade agreements strategic alliances competitiveness and investment strategy towards Eastern European states and compare business strategies in the triad region The distinguished contributors are from industry academia and international organizations and have first rate detailed knowledge of the issues raised Their approach is policy oriented and they use case studies of Toshiba Toyota Samsung and the Notebook PC Consortium to illustrate the investment strategies of East Asian firms This book will offer insights to scholars and students seeking to understand East Asian and European firms the topics of globalisation and regionalisation It will also appeal to policymakers wishing to influence and understand the strategies of transnational firms
