Freedom Through His Cross:

Freedom Through His Cross Mike Giaquinto, 2006-01-01 This book entitled Freedom Through His Cross is about God the Father's and His son Jesus love for all. It speaks of what God has done through His Son Jesus Christ and by Jesus offering up His body on the cross. It speaks of God's righteousness on the basis of faith and not of works. The Lord is good to all and wants all to know the truth about what He has done for them through His Son Jesus. Freedom in Christ Mike Baker, 2006

Freedom and Necessity in Modern Trinitarian Theology Brandon Gallaher, 2016-09-15 Freedom and Necessity in Modern Trinitarian Theology examines the tension between God and the world through a constructive reading of the Trinitarian theologies and Christologies of Sergii Bulgakov 1871-1944, Karl Barth 1886-1968 and Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905-1988. It focuses on what is called the problematic of divine freedom and necessity and the response of the writers. Problematic refers to God being simultaneously radically free and utterly bound to creation. God did not need to create and redeem the world in Christ. It is a contingent free gift. Yet on the other side of a dialectic, He also has eternally determined Himself to be God as Jesus Christ. He must create and redeem the world to be God as He has so determined. In this way, the world is given a certain free necessity by Him because if there were no world, then there would be no Christ. A spectrum of different concepts of freedom and necessity and a theological ideal of a balance between the same are outlined and then used to illumine the writers and to articulate a constructive response to the problematic. Brandon Gallaher shows that the classical Christian understanding of God having a non-necessary relationship to the world and divine freedom being a sheer assertion of God's will must be completely rethought. Gallaher proposes a Trinitarian Christocentric and cruciform vision of divine freedom. God is free as eternally self-giving, self-emptying, and self-receiving love. The work concludes with a contemporary theology of divine freedom founded on divine election. Paul Cries Freedom in Galatia! Gysbert M. H. Loubser, 2017 This study emphasizes Paul's urgency in conveying the radical newness of life since the advent of Christ and His Spirit. Just as the Spirit introduces believers to the life in Christ, He equally leads them to live life in the faithfulness of Christ, producing the fruit of the Spirit. Paul describes this as a life of freedom from flesh and its law, as well as the elements of the world. Guiding believers ethically from inside and empowering them to do God's will, the Spirit has no need of law, making the christological pneumatological ethic of the new creation wholly anomic. Series: Theology in Africa, Vol. 6, Subject: Religious Studies, Christian Studies. COVENANT THEOLOGY: A Critical Analysis Of Current Pentecostal Covenant Theology,

Northrop Gonzalo de Quesada y Aróstegui, 1898 Christian Faith & Religious Freedom V. Norskov Olsen, 1996 The theological grounding provided in this book is an important antidote to the tendency of many to base their arguments on religious freedom and church-state issues on political or constitutional grounds. Dr. Olsen makes an important contribution to our thinking by making us face the theological bedrock of any Christian approach to these topics. Foreword by George Knight
