Fragile Veils Rights Obligations:

Arab Family Studies Suad Joseph, 2018-07-10 Family remains the most powerful social idiom and one of the most powerful social structures throughout the Arab world To engender love of nation among its citizens national movements portray the nation as a family To motivate loyalty political leaders frame themselves as fathers mothers brothers or sisters to their clients parties or the citizenry To stimulate production economic actors evoke the sense of duty and mutual commitment of family obligation To sanctify their edicts clerics wrap religion in the moralities of family and family in the moralities of religion Social and political movements from the most secular to the most religious pull on the tender strings of family love to recruit and bind their members to each other To call someone family is to offer them almost the highest possible intimacy loyalty rights reciprocities and dignity In recognizing the significance of the concept of family this state of the art literature review captures the major theories methods and case studies carried out on Arab families over the past century The book offers a country by country critical assessment of the available scholarship on Arab families Sixteen chapters focus on specific countries or groups of countries seven chapters offer examinations of the literature on key topical issues Joseph s volume provides an indispensable resource to researchers and students and advances Arab family studies as a critical independent field of scholarship

Mothering from the Field Bahiyah M. Muhammad, Melanie-Angela Neuilly, 2019-06-14 Mothering from the Field offers both a mosaic of perspectives from real women scientists experiences of conducting field research while raising children and an analytical framework to understand how we can redefine methodological and theoretical contributions based on mothers experiences in order to revolutionize how we conceptualize research

Masculinities in a Global Era Joseph Gelfer, 2013-06-20 Masculinities in a Global Era extends the conversation of masculinity studies by analyzing global masculinities from a psychological perspective Canvassing a broad array of psychological aspects such as the construction of identity the negotiation of power coping with trauma and sexuality this volume shows how masculinities are experienced performed and embodied in geographically dispersed communities Importantly Masculinities in a Global Era fulfills a much needed but elusive need within the study of masculinities a forum in which the often polarized approaches of pro feminists and men s rights advocates can begin to move beyond their entrenched historical positions towards a more fruitful and nuanced future

محمد جيبالي, 2005 Marriage holds a position of perpetual significance because of the central role it plays in human life It is not surprising therefore that the scholars of Islam have discussed it extensively through the ages Under the contemporary influence of non Islamic cultures however misconceptions have crept into various areas of Islam spilling into marriage divorce and other family related matters Viewing the needs of the Muslims who live in non Islamic environments and realizing that most Islamic writings on marriage are restricted in scope we find quite a large gap that needs to be filled for the benefit of the English speaking Muslims which is what we attempt to accomplish over the span of this 4 book set that covers various aspects of marriage
