Language and the Grand Tour Arturo Tosi,2020-04-02 Language is still a relatively under researched aspect of the Grand Tour This book offers a comprehensive introduction enriched by the amusing stories and vivid quotations collected from travellers writings providing crucial insights into the rise of modern vernaculars and the standardisation of European languages

Fiery Dragons Sean Turnell,2009 This book tells the story of Burma s financial system of its banks moneylenders and microfinanciers from colonial times to the present day It argues that Burma s financial system matters and that the careful study of this system can tell us something more general about Burma not least about how the richest country in Southeast Asia at the dawn of the twentieth century became the poorest at the dawn of the twenty first While financial systems and institutions matter in all countries Turnell argues that they especially count in Burma as events in the financial and monetary sphere have been unusually spectacularly prominent in Burma s turbulent modern history The story of Burma s financial system and its players is one that has shaped the country It is a dramatic story of interest beyond the confines of economics and development studies

Winning Airlines Tae Hoon Oum,Chunyan Yu,2012-12-06 Major institutional regulatory and structural changes have occurred in international air transport during the past two decades Many countries have deregulated their domestic airline industries and open skies continental blocs have formed in Europe and North America A movement is now underway to create a liberalized continental bloc in Australasia International air transport has been substantially liberalized due to the diminishing role of IATA as an industry cartel and via a series of liberalized bilateral agreements signed between many countries including the u s and UK Increased liberalization and continentalization have induced major airlines to create global service networks through inter carrier alliances And all these changes are intensifyYing competition between major carriers in both domestic and international markets The increased competition and economic recession in the early 1990s led many airlines to massive financial losses forcing them to undertake major restructuring to improve efficiency and reduce costs Although it is important for an airline to map out proper strategies in the globalizing airline industry the ultimate ability of a carrier to swvive and prosper in increasingly competitive markets greatly depends on its productivity and cost competitiveness
