Four Seasons For Toby:

Four Seasons for Toby Dorothy Joan Harris, Vlasta Van Kampen, 1987 Hour of the Cat Peter Quinn, 2022-02-08 It is just another murder one of the hundreds of simple homicides in 1939 A spinster nurse is killed in her apartment a suspect is caught with the murder weapon and convicted Fintan Dunne the PI lured onto the case and coerced by conscience into unraveling the complex setup that has put an innocent man on Death Row will soon find that this is a murder with tentacles which stretch far beyond the crime scene to Nazi Germany in fact following it to the end leads him into a murder conspiracy of a scope that defies imagination The same clouds are rolling over Berlin where plans for a military coup are forming among a cadre of Wehrmacht officers Admiral Wilhelm Canaris head of the Military Intelligence is gripped by a deadly paralysis He is neither with the plotters nor against them Joining them in treason would violate every value he holds as an officer Betraying the plotters to the Gestapo Chief Reinhard Heydrich might just forsake the country's last hope to avert utter destruction and centuries of shame Heydrich is suspicious With no limits to Hitler's manic pursuit of territorial expansion with crimes against the people candy coated as racial purification the hour of the cat looms when every German conscience must make a choice When Canaris receives an order to assist in a sinister covert operation on foreign shores his hour has come Hour of the Cat is a stunning achievement tautly suspenseful hauntingly memorable and brilliantly authentic

Normalizing Mental Illness and Neurodiversity in Entertainment Media Malynnda Johnson, Christopher J. Olson, 2021-04-20 This volume examines the shift toward positive and more accurate portrayals of mental illness in entertainment media asking where these succeed and considering where more needs to be done With studies that identify and analyze the characters' viewpoints and experiences of mental illness across film and television it considers the messages conveyed about mental illness and reflects on how the different texts reflect reinforce or challenge sociocultural notions regarding mental illness Presenting chapters that explore a range of texts from film and television covering a variety of mental health conditions including autism post traumatic stress disorder PTSD depression and more this book will appeal to scholars of sociology cultural and media studies and mental health The Short Stories of Saki Saki, 1930 Exploring Catholic Faith in Shakespearean Drama David Torevell, Brandon Schneeberger, Luke Taylor, 2025-03-31 This pioneering study investigates the connection between Shakespeare and Catholic education Its authors contend that Shakespeare's plays explore Catholic understandings of human life in ways that remain relevant for Catholic educational institutions today Through chapters focusing on ethical and existential themes love desire the body marriage virginity evil finitude jealousy and lies the authors demonstrate Shakespeare's wide ranging engagement with early modern Catholic belief and practice At the same time they argue that Shakespeare's treatment of Catholic faith through imaginative literature rather than magisterial discourse and dramatically rather than didactically provides a pedagogical model for contemporary teachers The first volume to trace the relationship between a philosophy of Catholic education and Shakespearean drama it will appeal strongly to all those working in Catholic educational settings particularly those tasked with strengthening the mission of their institution as well as to scholars and researchers of literacy education religious education and to those interested in the dynamic between education and drama
