Introducing the Pseudepigrapha of Second Temple Judaism Daniel M. Gurtner,2020-11-17 2020 Center for Biblical Studies Book Award Reference Works This book introduces readers to a much neglected and misunderstood assortment of Jewish writings from around the time of the New Testament Dispelling mistaken notions of falsely attributed writings that are commonly inferred from the designation pseudepigrapha Daniel Gurtner demonstrates the rich indebtedness these works exhibit to the traditions and scriptures of Israel s past In surveying many of the most important works Introducing the Pseudepigrapha of Second Temple Judaism shows how the pseudepigrapha are best appreciated in their own varied contexts rather than as mere background to early Christianity or emerging rabbinic Judaism Foreword by Loren T Stuckenbruck

Mercer Dictionary of the Bible Watson E. Mills,Roger Aubrey Bullard,1990 Jesus Christ in History and Scripture highlights two related bases for the current revolution in Jesus studies 1 a critically chastened world view that is satisfied with provisional results and 2 a creative or poetic use of the sources of study of Jesus The Antecedents of Antichrist L. J. Lietaert Peerbolte,1996 This monograph discusses the rich variety of early Christian speculations on eschatological opponents as well as the Jewish roots of these speculations showing both the continuity and the discontinuity between early Christianity and contemporary Judaism "A" History of the Jewish People in the Time of Jesus Christ Emil Schürer,1901 A History of the Jewish People in the Time of Jesus Christ Emil Schürer,1897 The Jewish Messiah a Critical History of the Messianic Idea Among the Jews from the Rise of the Maccabees to the Closing of the Talmud by James Drummond James Drummond,1877 The Apocalyptic Son of Man in the Gospel of John Benjamin E. Reynolds,2008 The title Son of Man in the Gospel of John is an apocalyptic reference that highlights among a number of things that Jesus is a heavenly figure Benjamin E Reynolds analyzes the background of Son of Man from the one like a son of man in Daniel 7 and the interpretations of this figure in Jewish apocalyptic and early Christian literature Although there is no established Son of Man concept the Danielic son of man is interpreted with common characteristics that suggest there was at least some general understanding of this figure in the Second Temple period The author shows that these common characteristics are noticeable throughout the Son of Man sayings in John's Gospel The context and the interpretation of these sayings point to an understanding of the Johannine Son of Man similar to those in the interpretations of the Danielic figure However even though these similarities exist the Johannine figure is distinct from the previous interpretations just as they are distinct from one another One obvious difference is the present reality of the Son of Man's role in judgment and salvation The Johannine Son of Man is an apocalyptic figure and thus Son of Man does not function to draw attention to Jesus humanity in the Gospel of John Nor is the title synonymous with Son of God Son of Man may overlap in meaning with other titles particularly Son of God and Messiah but Son of Man points to aspects of Jesus identity that are not indicated by any other title Along with the other titles it helps to present a richer Christological portrait of the Johannine Jesus
