God An Open Question:

God Anton Houtepen, 2002-08-15 This important book sketches out the questions currently asked about God In the midst of religious pluralism and agnosticism Houtepen asks how can we think about God He finds the question impossible to answer without defining one's own position The author writes I have learned that it is good to speak about God with some caution not however at the periphery of thought but from within from the heart of our economic legal psychological and philosophical ideals The book is an account of my own personal theological question What have I found That the questions about God open our eyes to God the Eternal One the Most High as a question to us The Present-Day Christological Debate Klaas Runia, 2001-07-30 Not since the early centuries of the church has controversy raged so widely over the crucial question of the person of Christ Not only radical Protestants like John Robinson and the authors of The Myth of God Incarnate but also influential Roman Catholic theologians like Schillebeeckx and Kung demand that traditional categories be abandoned in order to speak to the modern mind Pannenberg and Moltmann have also made important contributions to the debate Klass Runia who is closely acquainted with contemporary continental theology discusses the central emphases of these different theologians and also how far they represent the apostolic faith The Pentateuch, in Its Progressive Revelations of God to Men Henry Cowles, 1874 The Development of Ethics: Volume 2 Terence Irwin, 2007 Volume 1 From Socrates to the Reformation Divine Command Ethics Michael J. Harris, 2004-03 This book analyzes the response of the classic texts of Jewish tradition to Plato's Euthyphro dilemma Does God freely determine morality or is morality independent of God In God's Own Image Simon Peter Kyambadde, 2005 Integrating modern psychological insights with Christian biblical teaching In God's Own Image is a useful tool to the individual or group seeking personal growth as well as to a counsellor spiritual director or growth facilitator assisting others in that all important journey of human growth it proceeds in three main steps first portraying the ideal of the personality as God meant it to be then the reality of what we are that includes goodness and deformation and finally examining how we can reclaim the ideal both for ourselves and for those we assist whether individually or as groups The material is arranged under three parts Part I describes the ideal What God meant us to be Part II describes the reality what we actually are with both our original beauty and our fallen nature Part III describes what we can become how we can move towards our original beauty A fundamental attitude to have in the arduous struggle of human growth whether this concerns one's own growth or one's duty in assisting the growth of others involves three convictions 1 Change is difficult A realistic appraisal of this fact does not lead to discouragement On the contrary it leads to perseverance to patience endurance courage and acceptance of occasional failure all factors that accompany genuine growth It helps us avoid the pitfall of looking for quick tangible results 2 Change is important In fact conversion and growth are not just important they are fundamental to a life worth living Striving towards our ideal self is the most important thing in our lives For that reason it is worth spending on it every ounce of strength in us When we are convinced of this then we are motivated to work for it 3 Change is Possible It is possible to improve to be converted and to grow When we have struggled to overcome one difficulty or another for years without visible success we may get into the belief that it is hopeless to think of the possibility of overcoming the difficulties But the good news about each one of us is that however much the beautiful image of God in us has been tarnished and disfigured we have the possibility to have it restored to its original beauty

The Open Question Elizabeth Robins,1899      Nature and Command J. Caleb Clanton,Kraig Martin,2023-08-18

Since at least the time of Plato religious explanations of the metaphysical foundations of morality have typically fallen into one of two camps natural law theory according to which morality is fundamentally explained by facts about human nature facts that God is responsible for and divine command theory which holds that moral obligations arise directly from God s commands or some other prescriptive act of the divine will J Caleb Clanton and Kraig Martin offer an accessible analysis of these traditional views reconstruct the various arguments for and against them and offer an extended consideration of the historical emergence of the divide between these positions within the Christian tradition Nature and Command goes on to develop and defend a theory that combines these two views a metaethical approach that has not yet received the scholarly attention it deserves Along the way the authors make use of underexplored theological resources drawn from the Stone Campbell movement a nineteenth century restoration movement that culminated in one of the largest Protestant groups in America by the dawn of the twentieth century Nature and Command summons the resources of this particular Christian heritage its first principles call for unity and ecumenism to solve one of the great dilemmas of moral philosophy and theology dating back to Plato s Euthyphro This historically aware argumentatively rigorous and highly readable volume will serve as a valuable resource for moral philosophy and ethics as well as for mining the Stone Campbell Restoration tradition for historical and theological insights

The Death of Death, Or, A Study of God's Holiness in Connection with the Existence of Evil John Mercer Patton,1881      The Living Church ,1910      Principia Meta-Ethica Calvin P. Van Reken,2015-10-22

Metaethics is the study of moral language moral ontology and moral epistemology This book addresses each of these in a way accessible to both students and professional philosophers Van Reken defends the classic view of moral realism advanced by philosophers such as Plato Aristotle Augustine and Kant Moral language tends to be the focus of much current metaethical discussion but this volume concerns itself more with questions of moral ontology and moral epistemology The concept of the moral field is introduced which helps distinguish what is moral and what is amoral a discussion too often overlooked by moralists and adapting an epistemological theory developed by Alvin Plantinga an argument is made that we can know moral truths Principia Meta Ethica presents a return to the core issues of metaethics and strengthens the case for moral realism with new arguments distinctions and concepts
