Election Campaigning, Japanese Style Gerald L. Curtis, Professor Gerald L. Curtis, 1971 Running for public office in postwar Japan requires the endorsement of a political party and a sophisticated system of organizational support In this volume Gerald L. Curtis provides a detailed case study of the campaign of Sato Bunsei who in 1967 ran for the Lower House of Japan's parliament as a nonincumbent candidate of the ruling Liberal Democratic Party Sato's district consisted of a modern urban center and a tradition bound rural hinterland and featured a dynamic dialectic between old and new patterns of electioneering which led Sato to innovate new strategies and techniques Since its publication in 1971 sociologists and anthropologists as well as political scientists have considered Curtis's microanalysis of Japan's political system to be a vital historical document offering insights into Japanese social behavior and political organization that are still relevant The Japanese edition of Curtis's pioneering study Daigishi No Tanjo a best seller is valued today as a classic and read and cited by journalists politicians and scholars alike This edition features a new introduction in which the author reflects on the reception of his book and on the changes in Japan's election process since its publication
