The Reformation

The Reformation was a religious movement that began in the early 16th century and led to the creation of new Protestant churches. It challenged the authority of the Roman Catholic Church and its Pope. Key figures include Martin Luther, John Calvin, and Huldrych Zwingli. The movement spread across Europe, leading to significant religious, political, and social changes.

- Martin Luther's 95 Theses (1517)
- John Calvin's Institutes of the Christian Religion (1536)
- Huldrych Zwingli's reforms in Zurich (1520s)
- The English Reformation (1530s)
- The Swiss Reformation (1520s)
- The Dutch Reformation (16th century)

The Reformation had a profound impact on European history. It led to the fragmentation of the Catholic Church and the rise of numerous Protestant denominations. This religious division often led to political conflicts, such as the Thirty Years' War (1618-1648). The Reformation also contributed to the development of modern democratic thought and the separation of church and state.
