

1. QUALITATIVE AND QUANTITATIVE METHODOLOGIES

Aim	To compare quantitative and qualitative methods
Skills	Evaluation, analysis and knowledge and understanding
Time	40-60 minutes depending on group size
Preparation	None

Student activity

Students brainstorm differences between quantitative and qualitative methods as a whole group.

Each student then takes the role of a positivist who favours the exclusive use of quantitative methods. They spend 5/10 minutes writing a letter to the person on their right who they should imagine to be an interpretivist who uses qualitative methods only. The brief letter should be both a criticism of the qualitative approach and an explanation of the superiority of quantitative methodology.

Students then pass the letter on to the person on their right and now read the letter they receive as if they are an interpretivist. They write a reply defending qualitative approaches and making critical points about the positivist position.

The process can be repeated as many times as you wish, letters either being swapped or passed on around the class.

Teacher notes

Students find it easier to write critical evaluative comments when addressing each other. Though they may struggle initially to find more to say as each exchange of letters occurs, they are pushed to evaluate further. Students benefit from seeing the work of other students and may transfer ideas gleaned from the person on the left to the person on the right, thus assisting peer learning.

The novel begins with Richard Papan, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
