

Die Fledermaus Overture

Johann Strauss, Jr.
1874

Allegro vivace

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves (treble and bass clef) joined by a brace on the left. The key signature is two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is common time (C). The music begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The first staff features a series of chords and eighth-note patterns, while the second staff has a more active melodic line with eighth notes.

The second system continues the piece with two staves. It features a prominent melodic line in the upper staff with a slur over a group of notes. The lower staff provides harmonic support with chords and rhythmic patterns. The dynamic remains piano (p).

Allegretto

The third system marks a change in tempo to Allegretto. It consists of two staves. The music is characterized by a slower, more spacious feel with a focus on chords and sustained notes. A piano (p) dynamic is indicated.

The fourth system continues the Allegretto section with two staves. It features a melodic line in the upper staff with a slur, and a bass line in the lower staff with chords. The dynamic is piano (p).
