

Alejandro Diaz has been in the trenches, seeing firsthand how ineffective managers create a dysfunctional work environment that stifles growth and prosperity. Through his thirty-four years in management, and personal experiences, he shows a better way to manage - one where trust and respect are the key to ultimate success for all.

This book is a must-read for new managers who are trying to find their way or veteran managers who want a roadmap to become more fulfilled and successful. And for all those who want to have a positive impact in their work world every single day.
