The background of the cover is a painting in a warm, golden-brown color palette. It depicts a coastal town or city built on a hillside. The most prominent feature is a large, domed building, possibly a mosque or a cathedral, with a smaller dome on top. To the left and right of this central building are several tall, slender minarets or towers. The town is surrounded by a body of water, and the foreground is dominated by dark, shadowed hills or mountains, suggesting a high vantage point from which the town is viewed. The overall atmosphere is one of a historical or biblical setting.
