Entertaining Fates:

Entertaining Fates, 1992 Politics and the Rhetoric of Poetry Tjebbe A. Westendorp, Jane Mallinson, 1995 The rich and varied nature of twentieth century Anglo Irish and Irish poetry is reflected in the essays presented in Politics and the Rhetoric of Poetry Perspectives on Modern Anglo Irish Poetry The linguistic and theoretical observations formulated in close readings of apparently non political texts disclose implied political positions and suggest to what extent rhetoric and the nature of language are at the root of such questions as how should we read contemporary poetry How can poems play a part in the resolution of the political and historic conflict Nuala N Dhomhnaill's versions of The T in Brendan Kennelly's Cromwell Paul Muldoon's Madoc and Ciaran Carson's Belfast Confetti are analysed in detail as is the relationship between rhetoric and politics in Seamus Heaney and Derek Mahon Earlier twentieth century poets such as Thomas Kinsella John Hewitt Patrick Kavanagh John Montague Louis MacNeice and Padraic Colum are also examined The contingent nature of language is recognized by many of these poets and the seventeen essays bring out the political charge hidden in the poetry This includes the deliberate choice of the poetic form the internal dialogue or the complexity of voices in the poem and a particular preoccupation with endings These essays demonstrate Yeats's contention that Deliberation can be so intensified that it becomes synonymous with inspiration

Dante's Modern Afterlife Nick Havely, 2016-01-06 Dante's persistent and pervasive presence has been a remarkable feature of modern writing since the late eighteenth century This collection of essays by an international group of scholars emphasizes that presence in the work of major British and Irish writers such as Blake Shelley Joyce and Heaney It also focuses on responses in America the Caribbean and Italy and deals with appropriations of Dante's work by poets from Gray to Walcott and novelists such as Mary Shelley and Giorgio Bassani and Gloria Naylor

The Art of Entertaining Mary Elizabeth Wilson Sherwood, 1892 The Thing about Roy Fisher John Kerrigan, Professor of English 2000 John Kerrigan, Sol, Peter Robinson, 2000-01-01 The Thing about Roy Fisher is the first critical book to be dedicated to the work of this outstanding poet who has won many admirers for his explorations of the modern city his experiments with perception and sensory experience his jazz inspired prose and his political and cultural comedies The collection brings together a distinguished group of contributors poets and critics from several generations active on both sides of the Atlantic In a dozen newly commissioned essays they discuss the entire range of Roy Fisher's work from its fraught beginnings in the 1950s through such major texts of the 1960s and 1970s as City The Ship's Orchestra and Wonders of Obligation to A Furnace his 1980s masterpiece and beyond The essays are closely engaged with the fabric of Fisher's verse but they also bring into view a fascinating array of connections between contemporary poetry and philosophy psychology the visual arts and jazz The Thing about Roy Fisher ends with a full and up to date bibliography an essential starting point for further study of this versatile and complex writer whose centrality and importance within modern English and European poetry is now more than ever apparent Kerrigan and Robinson's collection provides a helpful introduction to Roy Fisher's work and will be necessary reading for anyone with a live interest in modern poetry If you haven't been introduced before meet Roy Fisher a major figure of twentieth century literature inventive exciting and unpredictable Eleanor Cooke Raw Edge Roy Fisher's work is something altogether rare in contemporary British poetry David Sexton The Sunday Times The Library of Entertainment, 1918 Lippincott's Monthly Magazine, 1883 Poetry and the Sense of Panic, 2021-09-20 For all the disciplined artifice of Elizabeth Bishop and John Ashbery the essays in this collection show that panic plays a crucial role in their work giving substance to Bishop's claim that an element of mortal panic and fear underlines all art Panic emerges as a condition of creative anxiety and the self imposed demands of originality in response to the poetic traditions Bishop and Ashbery inherited These concerns are explored in essays addressed to Bishop and Ashbery's engagement with European Surrealism as an alternative to the dominant poetics of Modernism and its aftermath in the middle years of the twentieth century Other essays debate the philosophical religious and political orientation of their work in relation to Romantic orthodoxies and Postmodern ironies in terms of cultural history ideology and poetic practice This collection provides original commentaries on the work of two poets widely regarded as amongst the most significant American poets of the second half of the twentieth century with essays by notable scholars from the United States and Britain known for their special interests in modern poetry including Joanne Feit Diehl Mark Ford Edward Larissy Peter Nicholls Peter Robinson Thomas Travisano Cheryl Walker and Geoff Ward Followed by Fate Arthur Lewis Tubbs, 1903

Liverpool: The Hurricane Port Andrew Lees, 2013-03-22 Scousers believe they live in a special place one that has more in common with Salvador da Bahia New Orleans or Gdansk than anywhere in England and the city has always punched above its weight In less than a hundred years however Liverpool's image has declined from a major mercantile player known as the Second City of the Empire to what some social commentators have described as a cultural backwater remembered largely as the place where the Beatles were born In Liverpool The Hurricane Port Andrew Lees reveals how Liverpool's pre eminence in the slave trade left an indelible scar on the psychogeography of the city He also explores the roots of Liverpool's contrary nature its rebelliousness and its hedonism as well as some of the recent hurricanes that have battered the city including the anger of Toxteth the Hillsborough disaster and the murder of James Bulger In this distinctly personal account Lees defines
