EU Cartel Enforcement Andreas Scordamaglia-Tousis, 2013-08-01 There has been a long standing debate on the compatibility of EU competition law with fundamental rights protection particularly as the latter is enshrined in the due process requirements of the European Convention on Human Rights ECHR This book a signal contribution to that debate assesses two questions of paramount concern first whether the current level of fundamental rights protection in cartel enforcement falls within the accepted ECHR standards and second how the often conflicting objectives of effectiveness and adequate protection of fundamental rights could optimally be achieved Following a detailed survey of relevant EU institutional substantive and procedural law rules the author offers a set of persuasive normative responses to both questions Proceeding from an in depth analysis of the pertinent rights and legal nature of competition proceedings under EU and ECHR law the author goes on to examine such elements of the perceived incompatibility as the following investigatory powers vested in competition authorities the privilege against self incrimination right to privacy fair trial probatory requirements degree of use of presumptions in EU practice Article 6 ECHR guarantees pertaining to the presumption of innocence proving coordination of competitive behaviour proving restriction of competition admissibility of evidence before EU Courts and the Commission assessment of the attribution of liability rules EU fining rules judicial review of cartel decisions by EU Courts and national sanctioning rules The author s extraordinarily thorough presentation is rounded off with a remarkably comprehensive bibliography that lists in addition to books and articles newspaper articles EU regulations and directives soft law guidelines and best practices EU and ECtHR case law EU Advocate General opinions European Commission decisions and European Ombudsman decisions General conclusions stress the necessity of introducing further reforms to enhance the effectiveness and legitimacy of fundamental rights in the context of competition proceedings Few books have taken such a thorough and far reaching approach to the reconciliation of effective public enforcement and fundamental rights or of effective deterrence with the principles of legality non retroactivity presumption of innocence and ne bis in idem In the depth of its appraisal of the entire spectrum of enforcement components from a fundamental rights perspective the book is without peers It will be warmly welcomed by any parties interested in the intersection of competition law and human rights

Centralized Enforcement, Legitimacy and Good Governance in the EU Melanie Smith, 2009-09-10 Article 226 EC is the central mechanism of enforcement in the EC Treaty and remains unchanged since the original Treaty of Rome This book examines Article 226 in the light of contemporary debates including concepts such as democracy legitimacy good administration and good governance in the EU

The Changing Topography of EU Administration Didier Georgakakis, 2024-12-25 This book examines the ways in which the European Union s administrative structures have changed over the last decade in response to several significant political events including Brexit the refugee crisis and the Covid 19 pandemic Whilst much has been written about the responses to these events at both national and European level less attention has been given to the internal transformations they have brought about within the EU s institutions Multidisciplinary in approach the book brings together leading scholars to assess the ways in which key organizations such as the European Council the European Parliament and the European Central Bank have changed over the last ten years It also throws light on the impact these events have had on policy actors within the EU administrative system as well as its policy processes It will appeal to all those interested in European public administration political sociology European politics and EU studies

The European Ombudsman and Good Administration in the European Union Nikos Vogiatzis,2017-10-01 This book explores the work of the European Ombudsman and her or his contribution to holding the EU institutions bodies offices and agencies to account through examination of complaints on maladministration own initiative inquiries and other proactive efforts It considers the Ombudsman s current institutional and constitutional position and her or his method of dealing with complaints and unravels the depth of subject matters that fall under the Ombudsman s remit A separate chapter focuses on transparency and access to documents The last part of the book critically reflects upon the present mandate and practice of the Ombudsman and discusses a number of possible proposals for improvement This work has interdisciplinary appeal and will engage scholars in law political science and public administration as well as EU and national policy makers
