Crafting EU Security Policy Stephanie B. Anderson, 2008 In the absence of external security threats and especially given that most of the EU member states are also members of NATO what explains the European Union's commitment to a distinct collective security policy? What justifies channeling funds from cash-strapped European governments to finance that policy? Ranging from the early post-Cold War years to the present Stephanie Anderson explores the arguably surprising motivation behind the EU's security and defense policy how the ESDP has developed how it has transformed the EU and how it might further the European integration project

European Security in the Twenty-First Century Adrian Hyde-Price, 2007-02-12 Combining a sophisticated theoretical analysis with detailed empirical case studies this book provides an original view of the challenges and threats to a stable peace order in Europe The end of Cold War bipolarity has transformed Europe Using structural realist theory Adrian Hyde Price analyzes the new security agenda confronting Europe in the twenty first century Europe he argues is not primed for peace as mainstream thinking suggests rather it faces new security threats and the challenge of multipolarity This critical and original volume looks at European security after the Iraq War the failure of the EU constitution and the change of government in Germany Reflecting on the inherently competitive and tragic nature of international politics it concludes that realism provides the only firm foundations for an ethical foreign and security policy European Security in the Twenty First Century will appeal to students and scholars of international relations European politics and security studies The Transatlantic Relationship Sabina A. M. Auger,2003 Handbook of Political Science Research on the USSR and Eastern Europe Ray Taras,1992-10-23 This critical history of and guide to Soviet studies aims to take stock of the achievements and shortcomings in Western research on the region s politics and to serve as a who s who of Western Sovietologists identifying many prominent political scientists from the former Communist states Books from National Defense University Press National Defense University Press,1992 Security Studies for the 1990s Richard H. Shultz,Roy Godson,Ted Greenwood,1993 The United States is grappling with a new security framework to replace the structure of the Cold War era American policymakers face a host of challenges including regional conflicts ethnic tensions and weapons proliferation that commanded little attention in the past And tomorrow is likely to bring new concerns barely on today s horizon Despite these changes the study of national security remains largely a creature of the Cold War The security studies discipline needs to be overhauled But how should it be revised so that tomorrow s citizens and experts are equipped to understand and help manage new challenges One option is to downgrade security studies and divert educational resources elsewhere Another is to redefine the subject to include the study of an all encompassing list of international problems The third choice is to retain basic definitions concepts and subjects while also making significant adjustments Security Studies for the 1990s addresses all three options This book is the first to reexamine security studies in the post Cold War era Scholars and directors from leading security studies programs representing a cross section of viewpoints on foreign affairs discuss what new material needs to be taught and which courses and concepts should be recast Each chapter provides an indepth review of a major security studies course proposing needed changes and a model syllabus Subjects include intelligence policy global environmental problems the causes and termination of wars and collective security A chapter on the teaching of ethics a subject often neglected in the past is also featured BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Politics of Ethnicity and Nationalism in Europe and South Asia Naveed Ahmad Tahir,1996 International Journal ,1991 The Fall of Communism and Ethnic Violence Robert Evan Ellis,1995
