Eva Trout:

Eva Trout Elizabeth Bowen, 2003-02-04 Eva Trout Elizabeth Bowen's last novel epitomizes her bold exploration of the territory between the comedy of manners and cutting social commentary Orphaned at a young age Eva has found a home of sorts in Worcestershire with her former schoolteacher Iseult Arbles and Iseult's husband Eric From a safe distance in London her legal guardian Constantine assumes that all's well But Eva's flighty romantic nature hasn't entirely clicked with the Arbles household and Eva is plotting to escape When she sets out to hock her Jaguar and disappear without a trace she unwittingly leaves a paper trail for her various custodians and all kinds of trouble to follow Eva Trout Elizabeth Bowen, 1999 Eva Trout has a capacity for making trouble attracting trouble and for spreading trouble around her This book was the author's last completed novel first published in 1968 Borderlands MONIKA REIF. HULSER, 1999 Dissensuous Modernism Allyson C. DeMaagd, 2022-02-22 Placing women writers at the center of the sensory and technological experimentation that characterized the modernist movement Dissensuous Modernism shows how women of the era challenged gendered narratives that limited their power and agency and waged dissent through their radical sensuous writing Allyson DeMaagd critiques an overemphasis among modernist writers and generations of researchers on the masculine senses of sight and sound shifting the conversation toward the feminine senses of smell taste and touch These senses long considered lower were explored by writers such as H D Mina Loy Virginia Woolf and Elizabeth Bowen as DeMaagd demonstrates through detailed close readings of their lesser studied novels DeMaagd's analysis shows how these women incorporated technology in their work to reunify the senses or to draw attention to the destructive disunity of the senses highlighting the subversive potential of sensory integration Dissensuous Modernism illuminates how modernist women writers breached the sensory borders society erects between men and women heteronormativity and queerness ability and disability technology and nature and human and nonhuman It elevates diverse embodied experiences and illuminates the pivotal role of women in modernist sensory thought Eva Trout Or Changing Scenes Elizabeth Bowen, 1979 Elizabeth Bowen and the Writing of Trauma Jessica Gildersleeve, 2014-02-15 Elizabeth Bowen and the Writing of Trauma analyses the treatment of memory and the past in Bowen's writing through the lens of trauma theory It draws on the theories of Jacques Derrida Hélène Cixous Julia Kristeva Sigmund Freud and Cathy Caruth to propose that Bowen's work is best understood through the psychological narratological and linguistic effects of trauma in her fiction Bowen's writing complicates existing deconstructive and psychoanalytic models of trauma and literature and testifies to the responsibility of survival and the ethics of bearing witness Borderlands, 2021-11-08 Boundaries borderlines limits on the one hand and rites of passage contact zones in between spaces on the other have attracted renewed interest in a broad variety of cultural discourses after a long period of decenterings and delimitations in numerous fields of social psychological and intellectual life Anthropological dimensions of the subject and its multifarious ways of world making represent the central challenge among the concerns of the humanities The role of literature and the arts in the formation of cultural and personal identities theoretical and political approaches to the relation between self and other the familiar and the foreign have become key issues in literary and cultural studies forms of expressivity and expression and question of mediation as well as new enquiries into ethics have characterized the intellectual energies of the past decade The aim of Borderlands is to represent a variety of approaches to questions of border crossing and boundary transgression approaches from different angles and different disciplines but all converging in their own way on the post colonial paradigm Topics discussed include globalization cartography and ontology transitional identity ecocritical sensibility questions of the application of post coloniality gender and sexuality and attitudes towards space and place As well as studies of the cinema of the settler colonies the films of Neil Jordan and Othello in Canadian sports journalism there are treatments of the Nigerian novel South African prison memoirs and African women s writing Authors examined include Elizabeth Bowen Bruce Chatwin Mohamed Choukri Nuruddin Farah Jamaica Kincaid Pauline Melville Bharati Mukherjee Michael Ondaatje and Leslie Marmon Silko

The Aesthetic of Elizabeth Bowen's Novels Diana Hirst, 2025-12-23 This is the first monograph to evaluate Elizabeth Bowen s verbal painting and the first to acknowledge the influence of the East Kent landscape in her novels Drawing on the work of critics and on Bowen s own essays and articles Hirst introduces Bowen to the reader outlining the range of her literary work and elaborating on Bowen s advice that the reader needs to work at understanding her prose She examines Bowen s use of light and the eye from the perspective of neuropsychology before considering the importance to Bowen of place She discusses her verbal painting drawing parallels with different genres Post Impressionism Surrealism Futurism Collage and artists Paul C zanne Pierre Bonnard Edouard Vuillard Giorgio de Chirico Umberto Boccioni Paul Nash and the films of French Left Bank Cinema directors Alain Resnais Jean Cocteau Finally using the neologism dyslocution for Bowen s fragmented syntax she suggests this has been influenced by French syntax and by poetic techniques all of which combine in a Cubist style

Elizabeth Bowen Neil Corcoran, 2004-09-16 Explores how Bowen adapts Irish Protestant Gothic as a means of interpreting Irish experience during the Troubles of the 1920s and the Second World War and also as a way of defining the defenselessness of those enduring the Blitz in wartime London She employs versions of the Jamesian child as a way of offering a critique of the treatment of children in the European novel of adultery and indeed implicitly of the Jamesian child itself Corcoran relates the various kinds of return and reflex in her work notably the presence of the supernatural but also the sense of being haunted by reading to both the Freudian concept of the return of the repressed and T S Eliot s conception of the auditory imagination as a return to the origin
