Evaluating Educational Programs And Products:

Evaluating Educational Programs and Products Gary D. Borich, 1974 Abstract Prepared as a guide and handbook for planners developers and evaluators of educational programs and products practical insights are given on planning and executing effective evaluations The evaluator s work is viewed as establishing perspective planning the evaluation and analyzing the data Procedures that are appropriate for each of these activities are identified for the reader The subject matter in this multiauthored book is divided into roles and contexts models and strategies and methods and techniques Contributors also depict today s standards for evaluation and project what those standards will be in the future Selected Models of Developmental Education Programs in Higher Education Vernon L. Farmer, Wilton A. Barham, 2001-04-11 Selected Models of Developmental Education Programs in Higher Education includes models that are based on defensible theories about how students grow and develop at all levels of the learning continuum These models emphasize the theories and concepts that underlie developmental education as a field of practice and research with a theoretical foundation in developmental psychology and learning theory The theory based models consist of methods and techniques for implementing developmental education activities and ways of creating environments intended to improve developmental students learning outcomes These models include a rationale a theory that justifies the models and an explanation of how the models are designed The rationale is supported by empirical evidence that the models work These models were selected because they represent varied frames of reference toward educational goals and objectives Therefore this book is a valuable resource for scholars researchers educators and practitioners seeking to improve developmental students learning outcomes in developmental education programs in institutions of higher education Development and Evaluation of an Instructional Unit to Teach Basic Concepts and Skills of Photography L.
