

Evaluation

- Evaluation is a process that critically examines a program. It involves collecting and analyzing information about a program's activities, characteristics, and outcomes. Its purpose is to make judgments about a program, to improve its effectiveness, and/or to inform programming decisions (Patton, 1987).
- Evaluating is often overlooked in the day to day affairs of the school system. In reality, the ongoing evaluation of programs personnel, and activities maybe one of the more important aspects of the quality of effort being extended by the organization.
