

POEMS OF HEINRICH HEINE

TRANSLATED BY
LOUIS UNTERMAYER

This collection contains more poems than any previous single volume edition of Heine, including poems never before translated into English, and exhibits all sides of Heine's diverse genius. These translations keep not only Heine's music, his rhyme-schemes and changing metres, but reflect the swift play of his irony and constantly changing moods. The volume includes a prefatory essay which is a searching, analytic interpretation of the poet and his work, and Mr. Untermeyer's own portrait of Heine, "Monolog from a Mattress."

"For the first time, the English reader is furnished with a genuinely representative selection from Heine's poems so translated as to give not merely the superficial meaning, but their real significance."
—New York Times.
