Eschatology In The Making:

Eschatology in the Making Vicky Balabanski,1997-09-04 If the expectations of the early church concerning the return of Christ and the end of the world were disappointed the magnitude of the disappointment and the form in which it was expressed do not seem to fit with the expectations of modern scholars This 1997 study questions both the idea that the delay of Christ s return the parousia was the primary factor shaping the development of eschatological expectation in the early church and the linearity of the models used to understand the development of early Christian eschatology Vicky Balabanski argues that Matthew s Gospel shows a more imminent expectation than Mark s and that there were fluctuations in eschatological expectation caused by factors within these early communities and those of the Didache She traces these fluctuations and offers some new interpretative keys to Mark 13 Matthew 24 and 25 and Didache 16 as well as some vivid and original historical reconstructions

A Basic Guide to Eschatology Millard J. Erickson,1998-12-01 A leading evangelical theologian provides a comprehensive examination of the various evangelical views of the millennium and other eschatological subjects Making All Things New Benjamin L. Gladd,Matthew S. Harmon,2016-03-08 Many people think eschatology refers to events occurring at the end of history In this book two scholars with expertise in biblical eschatology argue that God s kingdom breaking into this world through Jesus Christ has inaugurated a new creation a reality that should shape pastoral leadership and be reflected in the life and ministry of the church Brief and accessibly written this book articulates the practical implications of G K Beale s New Testament Biblical Theology and features an introductory chapter by Beale Each chapter concludes with practical suggestions and a list of books for further study

More of the End Times Made Simple Samuel E. Waldron,2009-12 This book is the second installment in Dr Waldrons groundbreaking work The End Times Made Simple in which he deftly dismantled the interpretive view that dispensationalists have of prophecy in general This book goes a step further arguing that there are consequences to our eschatological i e End Times views The reader will find powerful and cogent arguments for a strictly biblical hermeneutic free from forced interpretations and presuppositions that have little to do with the actual Word of God Some of the topics covered are how we approach biblical interpretation in general and prophetic interpretation in particular and whether there is a distinction between Israel and the church or is the church the Israel of God This book will change the way the reader approaches the great prophecies of the Bible and will give the reader a renewed appreciation for the Lord Jesus Christ and His plan for His church

Behold, I Am Making All Things New Ron Mcray,2014-03-06 In a careful study of Biblical eschatology a study of last things the study of Christ s work during the last three and one half years of His earthly ministry is of paramount importance to any student or reader of the Bible Jesus continued work through His apostles during the following forty years after He ascended into Heaven is what made all the prophecies and promises of God come to completion It is this forty year period between 30 AD and 70 AD that this book deals Study it carefully Without that development period in which God was making all things new man could not have the great blessings that God has provided for him Twentieth Century Theology in the Making: Themes of biblical theology Jaroslav Pelikan,1971 Eschatology Samuel Lee,2008-08 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world s literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work Unveiling the Apocalyptic Paul R. Barry Matlock,1996-02-01 Apocalyptic is a key concept for 20th century interpretation of Paul embracing several major figures and strands of inquiry But the category apocalyptic has itself of late come in for scrutiny which in turn reflects back on apocalyptic interpretation of Paul This study offers a review of interpretation ranging beyond Pauline studies to address apocalyptic interpretation generally Sustained attention to what interpreters are doing with this category placed alongside what is claimed as being done reveals a hermeneutical story of considerable interest and wide relevance which situates the whole interpretive dialogue Starting with the Spirit Myk Habets,Gregory J. Liston,2024-08-22 Trinitarian in its foundation pneumatological in its impetus and comprehensive in its scope Third Article Theology TAT is both a method and a theology As a method TAT intentionally views reality through the lens of the Spirit As a theology the insights that arise from an approach that prioritizes pneumatology are deep and rich offering a penetrating vision into today s central and defining theological issues This volume introduces the reader to the methodology of TAT and some of the many theological insights that have arisen from its utilization Further it provides the tools and techniques to invite and inform the reader to participate in the efficient and pastoral exercise of viewing reality from a pneumatological perspective to catch a vision of the world as infused with the power presence and potential of the Spirit and to lead their lives accordingly Designed for classroom use it includes several pedagogical features such as case studies engaging with critical areas of contemporary concern Kingdom Come Gregory J. Liston,2022-07-28 Engaging eschatology as a pivotal vantage point this book utilizes the methodology of Third Article Theology to examine the intrinsically pneumatological relationship between the Church and the coming kingdom The overarching thesis developed is that exploring the relationship between Church and kingdom through the lens of the Spirit enables the construction of a nuanced account of the Church s ongoing transformation an eschatological Third Article Ecclesiology The Church as pictured in this volume is the proleptic anticipation of the coming kingdom Through enabling Christ s kingly presence the Spirit draws back to the present Church characteristics of the coming kingdom This enriches influences and transforms the present Church towards its intended telos An Introduction to the Gospel of John Raymond Edward Brown,2003 When Raymond E Brown died in 1998 less than a year after the publication of his masterpiece An Introduction to the New Testament he left behind a nearly completed revision of his acclaimed two volume commentary on the Gospel of John The manuscript skillfully edited by Francis J Moloney displays the rare combination of meticulous scholarship and clear engaging writing that made Father Brown s books consistently outsell other works of biblical scholarship An Introduction to the Gospel of John represents the culmination of Brown's long and intense examination of part of the New Testament One of the most important aspects of this new book particularly to the scholarly community is how it differs from the original commentary in several important ways It presents for example a new perspective on the historical development of the Gospels and shows how Brown decided to open his work to literary readings of the text rather than relying primarily on the historical which informed the original volumes In addition there is an entire section devoted to Christology absent in the original as well as a magisterial new section on the representation of Jews in the Gospel of John

Twentieth Century Theology in the Making Jaroslav Pelikan, 1969 Volume II
The Theological Dialogue Issues and Resources Christian theology has always stood on a borderline between itself and other disciplines especially philosophy between Christian claims to revelation and other understandings of man's relation to the Ultimate But during the twentieth century this dialogue has become a central preoccupation of theological thought from back cover

Mission and the Coming of God Tim Chester, 2006-10-01 How does the eschatological future impinge on the present Is the kingdom of God present outside the confession of Christ in movements towards social justice Is Christian hope a stimulus to social involvement or an alternative And how does the present impinge on the eschatological future What is the relationship between our actions now and the new creation Is there eschatological continuity between the two Jürgen Moltmann one of our most influential contemporary theologians has had much to say both on eschatology and its relationship to mission This book explores his thought along with evangelical responses to it Eschatology has been central to evangelical debates about social involvement ever since the Lausanne Congress in 1974 The book examines how evangelicals themselves have related hope and mission The book highlights the important contribution Moltmann has made while offering a critique of his thought from an evangelical perspective In so doing it touches on pertinent issues for evangelical missiology The conclusion takes John Calvin as a starting point proposing an eschatology of the cross which offers a critique of the over-realized eschatologies in liberation theology and triumphalistic forms of evangelicalism This is a work of major importance engaging with crucial themes and leading Christian thinkers A must read for all reactive evangelicals Tim Chester's work is always good but this is the best yet i Martyn Atkins Principal Cliff College Calver UK Despite the attention of Moltmann and despite intra evangelical debate on the nature of mission over the last three decades the task of bringing Moltmann and evangelicalism into dialogue has remained on the table for some time Tim Chester takes up the agenda His combination of practical experience in mission and theological ability equip him well for this task and the result is a study which brings academic reasoning to bear on Christian thought about eschatology and its vital connection with the missionary responsibility of the church It rewards our careful attention Stephen Williams Professor of Systemic Theology at Union Theological College Belfast iEschatology in relation to mission is often reduced to plans for

Ohishingi the Great Commission as soon as possible or to lurid end time scenarios that feed our fantasy more than they fuel biblical mission So it is refreshing to have this wide ranging in depth study of the theme that engages with one of the most well known theologians of biblical hope J rgen Moltmann alongside a number of renowned evangelical scholars yet stays rooted in the text and vision of the Bible itself This is searching theology in the service of biblical mission as all theology ultimately should be Chris Wright International Director Langham Partnership International Ancient Egypt, the Light of the World Gerald Massey,1907 The Gospel of Mark Benjamin Wisner Bacon,1925 New Creation Rodney Clapp,2018-08-15 New Creation introduces readers to the thrilling biblically based vision of a whole world created by and to be redeemed by God Written at an eminently accessible level it shows how endings or eschatologies animate our lives It rehearses the biblical story from an eschatological angle emphasizing that Christian eschatology entails a politics It then delves into how eschatology affects the priesthood of all believers peace making prayer and creation including the rocks and trees dogs and bees and maybe even sex With a light hand it provides biblical cultural background where needed Throughout it connects theological groundings to present day life Christian discipleship and contemporary issues Here is a view of eschatology that bypasses escapist Rapture theology and puts forward a robust exciting life now and in the age to come very different from New Yorker cartoons featuring the afterlife as a bland boring affair of strumming harps on clouds

Contemporary Options in Eschatology Millard J. Erickson,1977 If you have not made up your mind concerning the last things this book is for you If you have made up your mind but are seeking an impartial presentation of other views concerning the millennium and the tribulation you have found it Here in one volume is an even handed treatment of amillennialism postmillennialism and premillennialism followed by chapters on dispensationalism pretribulationism posttribulationism and mediating tribulational views midtribulationism the partial rapture view and imminent posttribulationism To help communicate the general mood or milieu contributing to the construction of these evangelical positions the author devotes the first two chapters to a number of other alternatives that have been popular in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries including consistent eschatology realized eschatology existential eschatology and the theology of hope Each chapter begins with a brief overview that is followed by a history of the position a more thorough examination of its major concepts and arguments and finally an evaluation The author wrote this book with the prayer that it will stimulate and encourage the reader s interest in the important issues of eschatology deepen his confidence in the fact of the Lord s blessed coming stimulate him to search the Scriptures to determine the things which are true and increase his understanding of and appreciation for the convictions of those whose views differ from his Intended primarily as a seminary and college textbook this volume is useful as well for the pastor and thoughtful layman Encyclopedia of Protestantism J.
