Gallant Hearts:

Silent Cinema and the Politics of Space Jennifer M. Bean, Anupama Kapse, Laura Horak, 2014-04-02 In this cross cultural history of narrative cinema and media from the 1910s to the 1930s leading and emergent scholars explore the transnational crossings and exchanges that occurred in early cinema between the two world wars Drawing on film archives from around the world this volume advances the premise that silent cinema freely crossed national borders and linguistic thresholds in ways that became far less possible after the emergence of sound These essays address important questions about the uneven forces geographic economic political psychological textual and experiential that underscore a non linear approach to film history The messiness of film history as demonstrated here opens a new realm of inquiry into unexpected political social and aesthetic crossings of silent cinema

Cinema, Transnationalism, and Colonial India Babli Sinha, 2013-07-18 Through the lens of cinema this book explores the ways in which the United States Britain and India impacted each other politically culturally and ideologically It argues that American films of the 1920s posited alternative notions of whiteness and the West to that of Britain which stood for democracy and social mobility even at a time of virulent racism The book examines the impact that the American cinema has on Indian filmmakers of the period who were integrating its conventions with indigenous artistic traditions to articulate an Indian modernity It considers the way American films in the 1920s presented an orientalist fantasy of Asia which occluded the harsh realities of anti Asian sentiment and legislation in the period as well as the exciting engagement of anti imperial activists who sought to use the United States as the base of a transnational network The book goes on to analyse the American empire films of the 1930s which adapted British narratives of empire to represent the United States as a new global paradigm Presenting close readings of films literature and art from the era the book engages cinema studies with theories of post colonialism and transnationalism and provides a novel approach to the study of Indian cinema
