Ekstrom, Dwight J. Goehring, 1988 Integration of emerging instructional technologies into existing training programs has the goal of improving training while reducing costs Evaluation of new systems in the context of the training program is the best method for determining if this goal is being achieved The Defense Language Institute DLI developed an interactive videodisc IVD system for use in the German Gateway course The IVD system was evaluated in a field test The objectives of the research were 1 to compare the effectiveness and acceptability of the video enhanced German Gateway program with the existing German Gateway program and 2 to identify user issues in the adoption of the interactive video course materials Group comparability was assessed for demographic and German language experience measures Students German proficiency and attitudes about the course were compared Language proficiency was measured both by self report and by pairs of trained raters in an Oral Proficiency Examination The two groups were comparable on precourse measures with the exception of time in Germany

However the final examination for the course was changed at the same time as the introduction into the course of the IVD materials and probably contributed to the effect Listening comprehension of German was also better for the IVD Field Test group than for the Baseline group Gateway Len Fox,1986 Network World ,1994-10-10 For more than 20 years Network World has been the premier provider of information intelligence and insight for network and IT executives responsible for the digital nervous systems of large organizations Readers are responsible for designing implementing and managing the voice data and video systems their companies use to support everything from business critical applications to employee collaboration and electronic commerce Books in Print Supplement ,1982 American Book Publishing Record ,1978 Learning Directory ,1970 Schwann Spectrum Schwann Publications,Schwann Publications Staff,1996-11 California Gateways Placement Test Workbook Grades 4 - 8, Level 1 - 4 Steck-Vaughn,2008-04 Words on Cassette, 2002 R R Bowker Publishing,2002 Gateway Diana Webster,Eeva-Liisa Pitkänen,Marja Wuorenheimo,1981 Essentials Marianne Fox,Lawrence C.
