

ANARCHY

Anarchy refers to a society without a government. It can take a variety of forms, all of which are based on the dissolution of authority and hierarchy.

DEFINITION

Anarchism can take a variety of forms, spread across the political spectrum:

- The far-right position advocates for reducing state influence so free markets can prevail.
- The far-left position argues that, when true communism is established, the state will naturally fade away.

EXAMPLE: ZOMIA

Zomia is a vast upland region in Southeast Asia that is stateless. The rugged terrain protects Zomia from outsiders, which has allowed its residents to develop unique social structures and practices that prioritize individual autonomy. Its people form small communities on the basis of kinship and live together in harmony.
