Revolution In El Salvador Tommie Sue Montgomery,2018-02-23 Since the first edition of this book appeared in 1982 El Salvador has experienced the most radical social change in its history Ten years of civil war in which a tenacious and creative revolutionary movement battled a larger better equipped US supported army to a standstill have ended with 20 months of negotiations and a peace accord that promises to change the course of Salvadorean society and politics This book traces the history of El Salvador focusing on the oligarchy and the armed forces that shaped the Salvadorean army and political system Concentrating on the period since 1960 the author sheds new light on the US role in the increasing militarization of the country and the origins of the oligarchy army rupture in 1979 Separate chapters deal with the Catholic church and the revolutionary organizations which challenged the status quo after 1968 In the new edition Dr Montgomery continues the story from 1982 to the present offering a detailed account of the evolution of the war She examines why Duarte s two inaugural promises peace and economic prosperity could not be fulfilled and analyzes the electoral victory of the oligarchy in 1989 The final chapters closely follow the peace negotiations ending with an assessment of the peace accords and evaluate the future prospects for El Salvador and for the 1994 elections

The United Nations Mission in El Salvador Tathiana Flores Acuña, 1995-10-06 The United Nations Observer Mission in El Salvador ONUSAL is the result of dialogue and negotiation between the Salvadorian Government and the Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front FMLN It constitutes the first UN attempt to mediate the settlement of a non international armed conflict This work studies the benefits and disadvantages intrinsic to a political body in monitoring the respect for international humanitarian law and analyzes new requirements demanded by the enlargement of the functions of the UN The analysis is based on the reports of the ONUSAL prepared during its peace making phase and focuses on the question of the extent to which the mission succeeded in assuring a better protection of the norms of humanitarian law The work is based on a Ph D thesis originally written in French Tathiana Flores Acu a received her doctorate from the European University Institute in Florence in 1994 She now works for the Organization of American States in Costa Rica

El Salvador Clare Ribando Seelke, 2019-08-22 Congress has had significant interest in El Salvador a small Central American nation that has had a large percentage of its population living in the United States since the country s civil conflict 1980 1992 During the 1980s the U S government spent billions of dollars supporting the Salvadoran government s counterinsurgency efforts against the leftist Farabundo Mart National Liberation Front FMLN The United States later supported a 1992 peace accord that ended the conflict and transformed the FMLN into a political party Despite periodic tensions the United States worked with two consecutive FMLN administrations 2009 2019 but bilateral efforts were unable to prevent significant outflows of migrants from the country Domestic Situation On June 1 2019 Nayib Bukele a 37 year old businessman and former mayor of San Salvador took office for a five year presidential term Bukele won 53% of the vote in the February 2019 election standing for the Grand Alliance for National Unity GANA party Elected on an anticorruption platform Bukele is the first president in 30 years to be elected without the backing of the conservative National Republic Alliance ARENA or the FMLN parties Bukele succeeded Salvador S nchez Cer n FMLN who presided over a period of moderate economic growth averaging 2 3% ongoing security challenges and political polarization President Bukele has promised to reduce crime and attract investment but his lack of support in the National Assembly GANA has 11 of 84 seats could present challenges Bukele has proposed infrastructure projects that could help the country take better advantage of the Dominican Republic Central America United States Free Trade Agreement CAFTA DR critics question how these projects will be financed Bukele has criticized repressive governments in Venezuela Nicaragua and Honduras During a July 2019 visit with Secretary of State Michael Pompeo President Bukele vowed to improve relations with the United States by working bilaterally to address gangs drugs and immigration and seeking investment rather than U S assistance U S Policy U S policy in El Salvador has focused on promoting economic prosperity improving security and strengthening governance under the U S Strategy for Engagement in Central America Congress has appropriated nearly 2 6 billion for the strategy since FY2016 at least 410 million of which has been allocated to El Salvador The Trump Administration has requested 445 million for the strategy in FY2020 including at least 45 7 million for El Salvador and an unspecified amount allocated for the country under the Central American Regional Security Initiative CARS Future U S engagement in El Salvador is uncertain however as the Administration announced in March 2019 that it intended to end foreign assistance programs in El Salvador Guatemala and Honduras due to continued unauthorized U S bound migration In June 2019 the Administration identified FY2017 and FY2018 bilateral and regional funds subject to withholding or reprogramming It is unclear how funds appropriated for FY2019 in the Consolidated Appropriations Act 2019 P L 116 6 and FY2020 funds may be affected Bilateral relations also have been tested by shifts in U S immigration policies including the Trump Administration s decision to rescind the temporary protected status TPS designation that has shielded up to 250 000 Salvadorans from removal since 2001 A House passed bill H R 6 would allow certain TPS designees to apply for permanent resident status
