Emerging Issues in the 21st Century World-system Wilma A. Dunaway, Emerging Issues in the 21st Century World-system Wilma A. Dunaway, Emerging Issues in the 21st Century World-system: New theoretical directions for the 21st century world-system Wilma A. Dunaway, 2003 As one half of the latest edition of Immanuel Wallerstein's Political Economy of the World System series this collection offers cutting edge theoretical directions to explain the structural crises of the 21st century world system Contributors argue that the capitalist world system has reached a critical bifurcation point a short period which will be characterized by a sudden shift in the long term structural forces that have created and sustained the world as we know it Writers challenge conventional thinking about the most significant structural crises that face the 21st century world system including terrorism debt the growth of megacities as global actors the emergence of a powerful transnational capitalist class and the world ecological crisis The Nation in the Global Era Jerry Harris, 2009 The Nation in the Global Era Conflict and Transformation makes available a unique blend of multi disciplinary research covering topics that present the most current thinking on key developments concerning globalization Its main focus covers questions of transnational class and identity in relationship to the nation state Global Crises and the Challenges of the 21st Century Thomas Reifer, 2015-10-23 Despite prognostications of the end of history the 21st century has posed new challenges and a host of global crises This book takes up the current global economic crisis in relation to new and changing dynamics of territory authority and rights in today's global system The authors explore long simmering conflicts in comparative perspective including settler colonialism in South Africa Northern Ireland and Israel Palestine They discuss indigenous struggles against environmental land grabs and related destruction of indigenous lands by the US nuclear weapons complex The book uniquely considers the sacred in the context of the global system including struggles of Latina o farm workers in the U S for social justice and for change in the Catholic Church Other chapters examine questions of civilizations and identity in the contemporary global system as well as the role of world regions Emerging Issues in the 21st Century World-system Wilma A. Dunaway, 2003 Immanuel Wallerstein who provided the foreword to these volumes is probably the most prominent advocate of world systems theory but as this collection of 32 articles demonstrates there are a number of advocates of this perspective within the American Sociological Association Presented by Dunaway sociology Virginia Tech the papers explore a number of issues of crisis and resistance to the structural system of global politics and economics and offer analyses designed to extend the scope of world systems theory to deal with issues of the environment urbanization and superpower hegemony Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com Hegemonic Decline Jonathan Friedman, Christopher Chase-Dunn, 2016-01-08 Although the United States is currently the world's only military and economic superpower the nation's superpower status may not last The possible futures of the global system and the role of U S power are illuminated by careful study of the past This book addresses the problems of conceptualizing and assessing hegemonic rise and decline in comparative and historical perspective Several chapters are devoted to the study of hegemony in premodern world systems And several chapters scrutinize the contemporary position and trajectory of the United States in the larger world system in comparison with the rise and decline of earlier great powers such as the Dutch and British empires Contributors Kasja Ekholm Johnny Persson Norihisa Yamashita Giovanni Arrighi Beverly Silver Karen Barkey Jonathan Friedman Christopher Chase Dunn Rebecca Giem Andrew Jorgenson John Rogers Shoon Lio Thomas Reifer Peter Taylor Albert Bergesen Omar Lizardo Thomas D Hall Latino/as in the World-system Ramon Grosfoguel, Nelson Maldonado-Torres, Jose David Saldivar, 2015-11-17 Contributors Immanuel Wallerstein Enrique Dussel Walter Mignolo Agustin Lao Lewis Gordon James V Fenelon Roberto Hernandez James Cohen Santiago Slabosky Susanne Jonas and Thomas Reifer By the mid twenty first century white Euro Americans will be a demographic minority in the United States and Latino as will be the largest minority 25 percent These changes bring about important challenges at the heart of the contemporary debates about political transformations in the United States and around the world Latino as are multiracial Afro latinos Indo latinos Asian latinos and Euro latinos multi ethnic multireligious Jewish Catholic Protestant Muslim indigenous and African spiritualities and of varied legal status immigrants citizens and illegal migrants This collection addresses for the first time the potential of these diverse Latino a spiritualities origins and statuses against the landscape of decolonization of the U S economic and cultural empire in the twenty first century Some authors explore the impact of Indo latinos and Afro latinos in the United States and others discuss the conflicting interpretations and political conflicts arising from the Latinization of the United States Indigenous Peoples and Globalization Thomas D. Hall, James V. Fenelon, 2015-12-03 The issues native peoples face intensify with globalization Through case studies from around the world Hall and Fenelon demonstrate how indigenous peoples movements can only be understood by linking highly localized processes with larger global and historical forces The authors show that indigenous peoples have been resisting and adapting to encounters with states for millennia Unlike other antiglobalization activists indigenous peoples primarily seek autonomy and the right to determine their own processes of adaptation and change especially in relationship to their origin lands and community The authors link their analyses to current understandings of the evolution of globalization Overcoming Global Inequalities Immanuel Wallerstein, Christopher Chase-Dunn, Christian Suter, 2015-11-17 This book examines the changing nature of global inequalities and efforts that are being made to move toward a more egalitarian world society The contributors are world historical sociologists and geographers who place the contemporary issues of unequal power wealth and income in a global historical perspective The geographers examine the roles of geopolitics and patterns of warfare in the historical development of the modern world system and the sociologists examine endeavours to improve the situations of poor peoples and nations and to engage the challenges of sustainability that are linked with global inequalities Overcoming Global Inequalities contains cutting edge research from engaged social scientists intended to help humanity deal with the challenges of global inequality in the 21st century Mass Migration in the World-system Terry-Ann Jones, Eric Mielants, 2010 Brings to light the experiences of migrants across the world by engaging wide ranging ideas and theoretical viewpoints of the migration process
