Casca Llanna. (Good News.) Love, Woman, Marriage: the grand secret! A book for the heartfelt. Fourth edition. [By Casca Llanna.] Casca LLANNA (pseud.),1872 World Literature Criticism: Cervantes-García Lorca James P. Draper,1992-01-01 Casca Llanna (good News) Love, Woman, Marriage: the Grand Secret! ,1872

The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross,William Shawn,Tina Brown,David Remnick,Katharine Sergeant Angell White,Rea Irvin,Roger Angell,2009-06 A Walk FROM THE Sea LAUREL LORRAINE LANCER PH.D.,2014 This is a collection of poems written by Dr Lancer over many years The topics are varied There are chapters about nature people one on the golden years one about fairy folk and there are two chapters devoted to poems for children These Dr Lancer wrote when she was teaching poetry writing to the gifted and talented students and later students in grades 3 through 5 with interest in creative writing There is one chapter devoted to copying the format and rhyming styles of famous poets The rewrites are often of different topics than the original but more updated and often humorous Dr Lancer is also a painter and has included a painting with an accompanying poem to head each chapter Figures of Alterity Lawrence R. Schehr,2003 This book focuses on the extension of realist writing toward alterity toward otherness in its ongoing efforts to enable individuals to speak and be heard correctly Through a series of close readings of six authors from Balzac to Proust the author shows the ways realist narrative engages the problem of bringing the other into the realm of the discursively representable The acts of representation involved in that development were not necessarily coterminous with either the representation of the exotic and its attendant stereotypes or with the representation of individuals themselves The representation of the other was the extension of discourse to what was previously unrepresentable The author argues that the unrepresentable is often perceived as oppositional because of the structuring of discourse by hierarchies and metaphysics whereby any bivalent pair is made into an oppositional pair White Space Ilsa J. Bick,2015-02-10 In the tradition of Memento and Inception comes a thrilling and scary young adult novel about blurred reality where characters in a story find that a deadly and horrifying world exists in the space between the written lines Emma Lindsay has problems no parents a crazy guardian and all those times when she blinks away dropping into other lives so surreal it s as if the story of her life bleeds into theirs But one thing Emma has never doubted is that she s real Then she writes White Space which turns out to be a dead ringer for part of an unfinished novel by a long dead writer In the novel characters travel between different stories When Emma blinks she might be doing the same

Before long she's dropped into the very story she thought she'd written. Emma meets other kids like her. They discover that they may be nothing more than characters written into being for a very specific purpose. What they must uncover is why they've been brought to this place before someone pens their end.

Pakistan's Nuclear Policy Zafar Khan, 2014-07-17

In May 1998 in reaction to India's nuclear weapons tests Pakistan tested six nuclear weapons. Following this the country opted for a policy of minimum deterrence and within a year Pakistan had altered its policy stance by adding the modifier of minimum credible deterrence. This book looks at how this seemingly innocuous shift seriously impacted on Pakistan's nuclear policy direction and whether the concept of minimum has lost its significance in the South Asian region's changed changing strategic environment. After providing a brief historical background exploring why and how Pakistan carried out the nuclear development program the book questions why Pakistan could not sustain the minimum deterrence that it had conceptualized in the immediate aftermath of the 1998 test. It examines the conceptual theoretical framework of the essentials of minimum deterrence in order to question whether Pakistan's nuclear policy remained consistent with this as well as to discover the rudimentary factors that are responsible for the inconsistencies with regard to minimum deterrence conceived in this study. The book goes on to look at the policy options that Pakistan had after acquiring the nuclear capability and what the rationale was for selecting minimum deterrence. The book not only highlights Pakistan's deterrent force building but also analyzes closely Pakistan's doctrinal posture of first use option. Furthermore it examines the policy towards arms control and disarmament and discusses whether these individual policy orientations are consistent with the minimum deterrence. Conceptually providing a deeper understanding of Pakistan's post 1998 nuclear policy this book critically examines whether the minimum deterrence conceived could be sustained both at the theoretical and operational levels. It will be a useful contribution in the field of Nuclear Policy Security Studies Asian Politics Proliferation Non Proliferation Studies and Peace Studies. This book will be of interest to policy makers scholars and students of nuclear policy nuclear proliferation and arms control related research.
