WOMEN EMPOWERMENT THROUGH SELF-HELP GROUPS Dr. A. Ramalingaiah and Dr. M. Muninarayanappa,2023-03-28 The efforts made by the Indian development planners during the past decades are commendable in reducing poverty and other dimensions of human development However a number of tasks remain unfinished Abject poverty is still a stark reality for millions of Indians Also wide gaps in human development among states districts and social groups exist There is an urgent need for more concerted efforts to achieve greater social and gender equality Women in India are victims of a multiple socio economic and cultural factors They are an integral part of every economy All round development and harmonious growth of a nation would be possible only when women are considered as equal partners in progress with men Emancipation of women is a pre requisite for a NATION S ECONOMIC development and social upliftment Poverty is the main obstacle for the improvement of the women The role of women and the need to empower them are central to human DEVELOPMENT programs including poverty alleviation Forging Ahead with Social & Economic Transformation United Democratic Front (Malawi),2004

Women Empowerment Jag Paul Sharma,2021-11-20 Consequently the issue of women empowerment has emerged as most important agenda of 21st century and challenge as well to the world community New Sustainable Development Goals SDGs which set a series of goals and targets to be achieved by 2030 represent a huge advancement over the Millennium Development Goals 2000 2015 through recognition of many elements essential to women s empowerment such as education health control over violence economic as well as political participation To infuse new energy in commitments and initiatives related to women empowerment International Women s Day is celebrated on March 8 every year since 2010 It is a focal point in the movements for women s rights In spite of several initiatives physical economic psychological and sexual violence continue against women across the world It is estimated that 1 in 3 women globally is a victim of gender based violence and the vast majority of those who respond positively to surveys do not seek any form of formal or informal support In 29 countries in Africa and the Middle East where the practice is concentrated more than 125 million girls and women alive today have been subjected to female genital mutilation FGM Women trafficking child marriage sexual violence rapes and other crimes against women show persistence and on rise
