Floating World:

Flotsametrics and the Floating World Curtis Ebbesmeyer, Eric Scigliano, 2009-03-24 Pioneering oceanographer Curtis Ebbesmeyer unravels the mystery of marine currents uncovers the astonishing story of flotsam and changes the world's view of trash the ocean and our global environment Curtis Ebbesmeyer is no ordinary scientist He's been a consulting oceanographer for multinational firms and a lead scientist on international research expeditions but he's never held a conventional academic appointment He seized the world's imagination as no other scientist could when he and his worldwide network of beachcomber volunteers traced the ocean's currents using thousands of sneakers and plastic bath toys spilled from storm-tossed freighters Now for the first time Ebbesmeyer tells the story of his lifelong struggle to solve the sea's mysteries while sharing his most surprising discoveries He recounts how flotsam has changed the course of history leading Viking mariners to safe harbors Columbus to the New World and Japan to open up to the West and how it may even have made the origin of life possible He chases icebergs and floating islands investigates ocean mysteries from ghost ships to a spate of washed-up severed feet on Canadian beaches and explores the enormous floating garbage patches and waste-heaped junk beaches that collect the flotsam and jetsam of industrial society Finally Ebbesmeyer reveals the rhythmic and harmonic order in the vast oceanic currents called gyres the heartbeat of the world and the threats that global warming and disintegrating plastic waste pose to the seas and to us

Artists of the Floating World Rob Burton, 2007 This work analyzes the fiction of four contemporary multicultural writers who render a floating world in which cultures converge or collide in unexpected exciting and dangerous ways The novels and short stories of Kazuo Ishiguro Bessie Head Bharati Mukherjee and Salman Rushdie explore a literal and metaphorical floating world adapted from the Japanese concept of ukiyo a still point between briefly held earthly pleasures and spiritual immutability where the characters like their authors are poised between conflicting worlds cultures and traditions The manner in which these four authors articulate such a floating experience Burton argues enriches our understanding and appreciation of the increasingly interconnected world around us

The Complicit Text Ivan Stacy, 2020-12-10 The Complicit Text Failures of Witnessing in Postwar Fiction identifies the causes of complicity in the face of unfolding atrocities by examining the works of Albert Camus Milan Kundera Kazuo Ishiguro W G Sebald Thomas Pynchon and Margaret Atwood Ivan Stacy argues that complicity often stems from narrative failures to bear witness to wrongdoing However literary fiction he contends can at once embody and examine forms of complicity on three different levels as a theme within literary texts as a narrative form and also as it implicates readers themselves through empathetic engagement with the text Furthermore Stacy questions what forms of non-complicit action are possible and explores the potential for productive forms of compromise Stacy discusses both individual dilemmas of complicity in the shadow of World War II and collective complicity in the context

world of urban Edo and the process of negotiating this within the larger field of publishing are examined to further ground ukiyo e as material culture as commodities in a mercantile economy Picturing the Floating World offers a new approach a critical yet accessible analysis of the genre as it was developed in its social cultural and political milieu The book introduces students collectors and enthusiasts to ukiyo e as a genre under construction in its own time while contributing to our understanding of early modern visual production PICT OF THE FLOATING WORLD Amy 1874-1925 Lowell,2016-08-29
