Edited For Television:

The Battle for the Bs Blair Davis, 2012-04-06 The emergence of the double bill in the 1930s created a divide between A pictures and B pictures as theaters typically screened packages featuring one of each With the former considered more prestigious because of their larger budgets and more popular actors the lower budgeted Bs served largely as a support mechanism to A films of the major studios most of which also owned the theater chains in which movies were shown When a 1948 U S Supreme Court antitrust ruling severed ownership of theaters from the studios the B movie soon became a different entity in the wake of profound changes to the corporate organization and production methods of the major Hollywood studios In The Battle for the Bs Blair Davis analyzes how B films were produced distributed and exhibited in the 1950s and demonstrates the possibilities that existed for low budget filmmaking at a time when many in Hollywood had abandoned the Bs Made by newly formed independent companies 1950s B movies took advantage of changing demographic patterns to fashion innovative marketing approaches They established such genre cycles as science fiction and teen oriented films think Destination Moon and I Was a Teenage Werewolf well before the major studios and also contributed to the emergence of the movement now known as underground cinema Although frequently proving to be multimillion dollar box office draws by the end of the decade the Bs existed in opposition to the cinematic mainstream in the 1950s and created a legacy that was passed on to independent filmmakers in the decades to come

Neoliberalism and Global Cinema Jyotsna Kapur, Keith B. Wagner, 2011-05-09 In this edited volume an international ensemble of scholars looks at how the world's various cinemas including Asia Africa Latin America Europe and the U S have variously performed contested and reinforced the worldwide transition to neoliberalism Grounded in Marxist theory the volume considers how the contradictions of capital both as culture and commerce have played out globally in contemporary media culture

Culture, Communication and India's Development N. Sudhakar Rao, Arbind Sinha, 2022-01-01 Grounded in the realities of Indian social context the book is concerned with both theory and practice concerning Development Communication It brings together Social Cultural Anthropology and Development Communication in India covering tribal rural and urban populations on the subject The chapters in the volume focus on the contemporary media practices issues of empowerment of women and marginal populations through communication technologies which are proven very effective Further the new areas of research such as clash of cultures and phatic communication Social Media and impact of social networks on mental health sharenting etc identified would provide leads to the researchers in the area of Development Communication The book will serve as a guide for Communication Anthropology which is in infant stage in India It will be a boon to sociology and communication researchers in India and other Third World countries to understand the subtleties of current social transformation

United States of America V. Boente, 1981 I'm the King of the Castle Susan Hill, 1981 Schedule B. United States. Bureau of the Census, 1965 Includes changes entitled Public bulletin Are You Winning Or Losing In Life? Priceless Royalty, 2020-06-29 Our greatest challenge in life is ourselves We can be our own critic advocate or enemy We can sabotage our health finances relationships and success It is time to be honest with ourselves We determine our happiness and failures The choices we make in life determines the outcome of our fate and person we are to become There are no respecter of persons in this book There are things in our lives we need to change confront or deal with In this book everyone can find something about themselves or someone they know they can relate to The reader will be enlighten and know where they are winning and losing in life The truth in this book will set some people free from self destruction It's Our Day Katherine Jellison,2008 Offers a detailed cultural history of weddings in America from 1945 to 2000 exploring the political social economic and demographic events that influenced the traditions and cost associated with weddings in the post war years Sliding Leslie Norris,1981

News and Politics Stephen Cushion,2015-03-24 News and Politics critically examines television news bulletins still the primary source of information for most people and asks whether the wider pace and immediacy of 24 hour news culture has influenced their format and style over time Drawing on the concepts of mediatization and journalistic interventionism Stephen Cushion empirically traces the shift from edited to live reporting from a cross national perspective focussing on the two way convention in political coverage and the more interpretive approach to journalism it promotes Challenging prevailing academic wisdom Cushion argues that the mediatization of news does not necessarily reflect a commercial logic or a lowering of journalism standards In particular the rise of live two ways can potentially enhance viewers understanding of public affairs moving reporters beyond their visual backdrops and reliance on political soundbites by asking journalists to scrutinize the actions of political elites interpret competing source claims and to explain the broader context to everyday stories Considering the future of 24 hour news a final discussion asks whether new content and social media platforms including Twitter and BuzzFeed enhance or weaken democratic culture This timely analysis of News and Politics is ideal for students of political communication and journalism studies as well as communication studies media studies and political science How to Read a Film James Monaco,1981 Now thoroughly revised and updated the book discusses recent breakthroughs in media technology including such exciting advances as video discs and cassettes two way television satellites cable and much more The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 Quagga Kultur Michel Clasquin,2003
