Emerging Voices for Animals in Tourism Jes Hooper, Carol Kline, 2024-02-14. While the study of animal-human interactions within the context of tourism has been explored in a greater number and diversity of ways within the last decade, the discourse remains divided between traditional tourism academia and outside disciplines. Looking in, tourism academia has borrowed philosophical, ethical, gender studies, sociological, ecological, conservation, and economic lenses to explore animals in tourism; however, collaboration with authors external to tourism studies remains few. This edited volume strengthens the bridge between tourism academia and other disciplines by highlighting the fresh perspectives, emerging methodologies, and innovative interdisciplinary conventions at the forefront of animals in tourism research, whilst critically working towards more ethical human-animal interactions within the tourism and leisure space. Split into four parts: emerging motivations, emerging cultures, emerging narratives, and emerging reflections, this unique text will be widely applicable to scholars working towards equitable human-animal interactions within tourism.
