Floating Lives:

Floating Lives Stuart Cunningham, John Sinclair, 2001 This is an examination of media and communication within diasporic ethnic communities in Australia the Chinese Indian Vietnamese and Thai communities The study explores the ethnic community as a force in negotiating new hybrid identities and experiences common to diasporic groups worldwide

The Television Studies Reader Robert Clyde Allen, Annette Hill, 2004 The Television Studies Reader brings together key writings in the expanding field of television studies providing an overview of the discipline and addressing issues of industry genre audiences production and ownership and representation The Reader charts the ways in which television and television studies are being redefined by new and alternative ways of producing broadcasting and watching TV such as cable satellite and digital broadcasting home video internet broadcasting and interactive TV as well as exploring the recent boom in genres such as reality TV and docu-soaps It brings together articles from leading international scholars to provide perspectives on television programmes and practices from around the world acknowledging both television's status as a global medium and the many and varied local contexts of its production and reception Articles are grouped in seven themed sections each with an introduction by the editors Institutions of Television Spaces of Television Modes of Television Making Television Social Representation on Television Watching Television Transforming Television Transnational Audiences

Adrian Athique, 2017-09-05 In an interactive and densely connected world transnational communication has become a central feature of everyday life Taking account of a variety of media formats and different regions of the world Adrian Athique provides a much needed critical exploration of conceptual approaches to media reception on a global scale Engaging both the historical foundations and contemporary concerns of audience research Athique prompts us to reconsider our contemporary media experience within a transnational frame In the process he provides valuable insights on culture and belonging power and imagination Beautifully written and strongly argued Transnational Audiences Media Reception on a Global Scale will be essential reading for students and teachers of global media culture and communications In the Vernacular, 2009-04

Collecting important works from one of Australia's leading scholars of media culture and policy this study brings sharper focus upon both historical and industrial contexts Engaging with the global debate on multiethnic societies by focusing on creativity at the margins this survey argues that industrial and social trends in media communications and culture are outstripping the academic frameworks that were erected to deal with them Black Marks Karen Ross, Peter

Playdon, 2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 This text brings together a collection of empirical studies focusing on the relationships which minority ethnic audiences have with and to media texts both mainstream and minority The media which comprise the focus for the essays include television film advertising magazines and the press The field of media studies has moved beyond the model of media consumer as passive recipient towards individuals and groups who are altogether more engaged responsive and critical But studies of the interactive media consumer often fail to consider the specific characteristics of race and ethnicity which come into play for minority ethnic audiences and this book aims to add to the limited knowledge of the ways in which ethnic markers intervene in textual understanding and contestation Annual Report Canada. Dept. of Marine,1915 Journal Linnean Society of London,1915 Mobilising the Audience Tom O'Regan,Mark Balnaves,Jason Sternberg,2002 The first comprehensive integration of industry and academic audience research in Australia this book introduces new directions in method and analysis It is a contemporary probe into audience making and illustrates the ways marketers producers and governments mobilise an audience Case studies of Gen X computer gaming child audiences Transactions Society of Automotive Engineers,1917 Dreaming in Canadian Faiza Hirji,2010-10-27 As various nations wrestle with issues of immigration integration and pluralism second generation immigrants are exploring new ways to make sense of who they are and where they belong in the face of competing cultural demands They may call their adopted countries home but these young adults know that they stand out from the majority Dreaming in Canadian turns the spotlight on the role of Bollywood cinema in the production of cultural religious and national identities among South Asian youth particularly Muslims in Toronto Vancouver and Ottawa Young people share their thoughts on how Bollywood shapes and reflects their perceptions of themselves how they practise their faith and interpret cultural values and whether they view themselves as hyphenated Canadians By documenting the voices of these young adults and how they draw on media in the formation of uniquely hybrid identities this book interrogates the realities that underpin media portrayals of diaspora nationalism and multiculturalism thegasoline automobile george w. hobbs, b.s.,1915 Tu Fu, the Autobiography of a Chinese Poet, A.D. 712-770 Fu Du,1929 The Horseless Age ,1911 *Live Stock in health and disease, ed. by J.
