Elijah, Prophet Sharing and Other Bible Stories that Tickle Your Soul Mike Thaler,2000

Secrets Jesus Shared Jennifer Kennedy Dean,2007 The disciples weren't the only ones who needed help understanding the parables Jesus told. Believers today often need some clarification. Using this six-week interactive Bible study from trusted author and speaker Jennifer Kennedy Dean, you can explore the secrets of the kingdom of God as revealed in the parables Jesus shared. The study with five daily lessons for each of six weeks will help you understand what the kingdom of God is and how to release its power in your life.

A Journey Shared Greg Campbell,2005-02 A Journey Should Be Shared. We were not meant to live alone. We do not. We cannot. Life is meant to be shared. From the humble beginnings of a random blog page to the pages of A Journey Shared, you are invited to come along and share the Journey. From the depths of sorrow of losing a loved one to the joys and innocence of a baby girl, the tight uncomfortable places of trusting a Father we cannot see to the jaw-dropping miracles He provides along the way, the Journey of a follower of Jesus is never dull. And it's meant to be shared. Five main sections deal with the everyday challenges of understanding and dealing with sin, the many aspects of doing life together with other people, the pain and ultimately the hope of dealing with lives lost and the slow struggle of learning to trust the love of our Father along the way. How great is our God? And how great is this life we live with Him? Life like it ought to be. Jesus said, "I came that you might have life and life to the full." Come, let's travel together on A Journey Shared.

Sharing Sacred Spaces in the Mediterranean Dionigi Albera, Maria Couroucli,2012-02-20 Contributors examine intertwined religious traditions along the shores of the Near East from North Africa to the Balkans.

Choreographies of Shared Sacred Sites Elazar Barkan, Karen Barkey,2014-11-11 This anthology explores the dynamics of shared religious sites in Turkey, the Balkans, Palestine, Israel, Cyprus, and Algeria, indicating where local and national stakeholders maneuver between competition and cooperation, coexistence and conflict. Contributors probe the notion of coexistence and the logic that underlies centuries of sharing, exploring when and why sharing gets interrupted or not by conflict and the policy consequences. These essays map the choreographies of shared sacred spaces within the framework of state-society relations, juxtaposing a site's political and religious features and exploring whether sharing or contestation is primarily religious or politically motivated. Although religion and politics are intertwined phenomena, the contributors to this volume understand the category of religion and the political as devices meant to distinguish between the theological and confessional aspects of religion and the political goals of groups. Their comparative approach better represents the transition in some cases of sites into places of hatred and violence while in other instances they remain noncontroversial. The essays clearly delineate the religious and political factors that contribute to the context and causality of conflict at these sites and draw on history and anthropology to shed light on the often-rapid switch from relative tolerance to distress to peace and calm.
