

Module 1: Fundamentals of Writing

Do you cringe when you hear the words “fundamentals of writing”? Do you imagine pages bleeding with red ink? You may well have been taught that the fundamentals of writing are rules for grammar, punctuation, and spelling, but that’s not the case. Writing is fundamentally about communicating. The rules are important only because they affect communication.

Thankfully, this course teaches it all—how to clearly express ideas, effectively organize them, use a professional voice, and perfect words, sentences, and punctuation. These are the traits that will empower your business communication.
