

"A novel, well plotted book, with sections of Louis, Stein and J. B. Singer and perhaps a dose of Bernard Shaw as well. —The New York Times

A painting of a funeral home window. The window is divided into several panes. In the foreground, a dark counter holds several jars of varying colors (blue, green, yellow, orange). The background shows a view through the window, possibly of a street or a landscape. The overall style is somewhat somber and realistic.
