Future Of Literary Theory:

The Future of Literary Theory Ralph Cohen, 2016-08-19 In this book first published in 1989 twenty give eminent critics and theorists write about different aspects of literary theory These essays represent leading research in psychoanalytic criticism new historicism Continental theory feminism Afro American studies philosophy cybernetics aesthetics and other theoretical inflections The result is a collective statement on the course that lies ahead for criticism in the humanities and will be of interest to students of literary theory Literary Theory's Future(s) Joseph P. Natoli, 1989 The Current in Criticism Clayton Koelb, Virgil Llewellyn Lokke, 1987 The Current in Criticism is meant to provide the reader with a wide spectrum of current thinking a sampling of some of the arguments attitudes and perspectives which participate in the swirl of intense speculative energy that is so characteristic of contemporary theory The editors describe this collection of 14 essays as a tentative assessment of where we are and where we might be going in literary study of what is current in criticism and of where the critical current might be tending Entrepreneurial Literary Theory Alexander Search, Suman Gupta, 2017-07-04 Across the world at present researchers and teachers are being exhorted to become entrepreneurial Universities are being restructured accordingly The debate presented in this book considers what that involves and portends for academia Literary studies are often regarded as the most resistant to unfit for entrepreneurial purposes Literary research is therefore taken as a baseline for this debate The uneasy place of literary research within profit driven academia is revealing of the prevailing conditions for scholarship in all areas Questions that are raised and discussed here include What does doing research for the public good mean What is the relationship between profits and benefits from research What are applied and basic research Are concepts of academic freedom and disinterestedness meaningful What is the relationship between corporate and academic research Are skills and knowledge different Can pursuits like close reading and text interpretation be made profitable What is literary value and how can it be measured Can the literary system be modelled to profitable ends Can university teaching be automatized What are the differences between a standard publication agreement and a scholarly publication agreement How can digital and open access academic publication be made profitable Does the academic monograph have a future What sorts of knowledge and skills inform entrepreneurial leadership The Future of New Testament Studies Clarissa Breu, 2025-12-11 The volume answers the question of how historical research and present relevance in New Testament studies can interact fruitfully Does Literary Studies Have a Future? Eugene Goodheart, 1999 As we approach the end of a millennium the battle for the fate of literary scholarship has taken on near apocalyptic overtones with more than a few predictions of the imminent end of literary studies as we know it Taking aim at culture warriors on the left and the right Goodheart provides a succinct and timely assessment of the current state and future of literary studies in the US In Goodheart's view the opposition between tradition the cause of the right and innovation the cause of the left is essentially false tradition is an interactive history between the given and the innovative not an inert set of values or a stable canon of approved texts Midwest The Future of English in Asia Michael O'Sullivan, David Huddart, Carmen Lee, 2015-10-05 This collection is unique in bringing together key thinkers on language and literature to discuss the future of English in Asia Many of the contributors are themselves responsible for important sub genres in English linguistics and literary studies and this collection gives them the opportunity to respond to each other directly The different chapters also respond to different contemporary debates and emerging trends and discourses that are hugely important for the future of English language teaching in schools across Asia This volume is also ground breaking in bringing English literary studies and Applied English Linguistics together in the contemporary Asian context The Future of English in Asia includes studies on the following subject areas Cultural Translation in World Englishes Multilingual Education English Futures and the function of Literature English Literary Studies in Japan and English and Social Media in Asia Well into this century it appears that it is still very difficult to know what to expect when it comes to the future of English The future of English will continue to be determined by complex local contexts As it has in other parts of the world the future of English in Asia will continue to rely on the proliferation of its transformations as much as its hegemonic status This volume reflects the widespread acknowledgement that whatever future English has will inevitably be shaped by its fate in Asia The collection will be a welcome resource for scholars and students of English linguistics English literary studies and topics related to the teaching of English in Asia The Future of Literature Arther S. Trace, 1972 Conjunctures Douglas Kelly, 1994 No detailed description available for Conjunctures The Future of Theory Jean-Michel Rabaté, 2002-08-02 In this controversial manifesto Jean Michel Rabat addresses current anxieties about the future of literary and cultural theory and proposes that it still has a crucial role to play Catholic Eschatology and Universalism. An Essay on the Doctrine of Future Retribution Henry Nutcombe Oxenham, 1876 Acta academica , 1996 The Future of Trauma Theory Gert Buelens, Samuel Durrant, Robert Eaglestone, 2013-10-30 This collection analyses the future of trauma theory a major theoretical discourse in contemporary criticism and theory The chapters advance the current state of the field by exploring new areas asking new questions and making new connections Part one History and Culture begins by developing trauma theory in its more familiar post deconstructive mode and explores how these insights might still be productive It goes on via a critique of existing positions to relocate trauma theory in a postcolonial and globalized world theoretically aesthetically and materially and focuses on non Western accounts and understandings of trauma memory and suffering Part two Politics and Subjectivity turns explicitly to politics and subjectivity focussing on the state and the various forms of subjection to which it gives rise and on human rights biopolitics and community Each chapter in different ways advocates a movement beyond the sort of texts and concepts that are the usual focus for trauma criticism and moves this dynamic network of ideas forward With contributions from an international selection of leading critics and thinkers from the US and Europe this volume will be a key critical intervention in one of the most important areas in contemporary literary criticism and theory Future West

William Henry Katerberg,2008 What is the future of the American West This book look at works of utopian dystopian and apocalyptic science fiction to show how narratives of the past and future powerfully shape our understanding of the present day West Frontiers Past and Future Carl Abbott,2006 Abbott offers a fruitful new way to read science fiction one that also greatly enriches our understanding of western history and its impact on our collective imagination Detailing the overlap of science fiction and western fiction especially relating to their mutual interest in and concerns about frontier expansionism he reveals an unsuspected common ground that informs the writings of both camps Reviewing the work of many Hugo and Nebula Award winners as well as drawing upon popular film and television series like the Buck Rogers serials Abbott s study journeys across the far reaches of science fiction s universe Hope for a New David in the Psalter's Narrative Impulse S. D. Ellison,2025-12-11 Argues that utopian hope of the Psalter s narrative impulse is not a return to what once was but an encouragement to remain confident that YHWH will realize all his promises in a new era of blessing following the exile

Traversals Stuart Moulthrop,Dene Grigar,2017-03-31 An exercise in reclaiming electronic literary works on inaccessible platforms examining four works as both artifacts and operations Many pioneering works of electronic literature are now largely inaccessible because of changes in hardware software and platforms The virtual disappearance of these works created on floppy disks in Apple s defunct HyperCard and on other early systems and platforms not only puts important electronic literary work out of reach but also signals the fragility of most works of culture in the digital age In response Dene Grigar and Stuart Moulthrop have been working to document and preserve electronic literature work that has culminated in the Pathfinders project and its series of Traversals video and audio recordings of demonstrations performed on historically appropriate platforms with participation and commentary by the authors of the works In Traversals Moulthrop and Grigar mine this material to examine four influential early works Judy Malloy s Uncle Roger 1986 John McDaid s Uncle Buddy s Phantom Funhouse 1993 Shelley Jackson s Patchwork Girl 1995 and Bill Bly s We Descend 1997 offering deep readings that consider the works as both literary artifacts and computational constructs For each work Moulthrop and Grigar explore the interplay between the text s material circumstances and the patterns of meaning it engages and creates paying attention both to specificities of media and purposes of expression The Humanities "Crisis" and the Future of Literary

Studies P. Jay,2014-07-17 Demonstrating that the supposed drawbacks of the humanities are in fact their source of practical value Jay explores current debates about the role of the humanities in higher education puts them in historical context and offers humanists and their supporters concrete ways to explain the practical value of a contemporary humanities education

The Future of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy Lucy King,Rosemary Randall,2003-06-02 Psychoanalytic psychotherapy faces multiple challenges in the new millennium How can it organize teach and offer therapy in ways that are relevant to the diverse complex and social and cultural groups of people who seek psychological help How should it adapt to demands for accountability and evidence How can it cope in a climate of competition and market share Should it cleave to medicine or abandon it Define itself as a science or an art or an ethical practice This wide ranging work takes up some of the pressing cultural political organizational and ethical issues for psychoanalytic psychotherapy placing them firmly in a clinical context The contributors examine a range of issues from the experiences of a particular group of people in therapy children immigrants gay men short term clients who may challenge psychoanalytic assumptions to the difficulties psychoanalytic psychotherapy has in organizing itself creatively in a risk averse culture and to the openings and connections with other disciplines that may extend and enliven critical work The contributors write from the critical edge of psychotherapy and offer their own challenges to the profession

The Employment of English Michael Bérubé, 1998 What sorts of cultural criticism are teachers and scholars to produce and how can that criticism be employed in the culture at large In The Employment of English Michael Berube examines the cultural legitimacy of literary study Berube asserts that we must situate these questions in a context in which nearly half of all college professors are part time labor and in which English departments are torn between their traditional mission of defining the movements of literary history and the protocols of textual interpretation and their newer tasks of interrogating wider systems of signification under rubrics like gender hegemony rhetoric textuality including film and video and culture
