

A photograph of a dirt path leading through a forest. The path is the central focus, winding through trees with vibrant autumn foliage in shades of orange, yellow, and red. The lighting is soft, suggesting a misty or overcast day. The text is overlaid on the path.

I have made the best and happiest ending that I can in this world, made it out of the flax and netting and leftover trim of someone else's life, I know, but made it to keep the innocent safe and the guilty punished, and I have made it as the world should be and not as I have found it.
