

A revealing and constructive survey of the training of Negro ministers as an essential factor in the spiritual development of the race.

THE EDUCATION OF NEGRO MINISTERS

By

W. A. DANIEL

Published for

INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL AND RELIGIOUS RESEARCH

A volume of vital significance in the solution of one of America's greatest problems. It gives accurate, first-hand information regarding the origin and development of the theological schools for Negroes in the United States, and makes definite and practical recommendations for the better preparation of Negro ministers. There are specific data regarding each of the fifty-two Negro theological schools and departments in this country, and a revealing discussion of the students themselves, showing their attitudes and beliefs before entering the school and afterwards. This survey was made at the earnest request of every important denominational and interdenominational agency in the United States, Negro and white, interested in the Negro ministry. A companion volume to Dr. Kelly's much discussed work, "Theological Education in America."
