Environmental Education Cornelius J. Troost, Harold Altman, 1972 Environmental education Cornelius J. Troost, 1972
Environmental Education, 1972 Environmental Education Curriculum Development Centre, Canberra (Australia), 1981 Arranged in four sections the book offers practical techniques for introducing environmental education at the primary level The first section on planning outlines a conceptual framework for environmental education describes how the staff at one primary school developed a K 7 curriculum examines an in service course on environmental science for K 2 teachers and students discusses an environment week festival presents environmental guidelines for schools and suggests ways to develop school grounds for environmental education The second section focuses on language arts and discusses the relationship between language development and environmental education Other topics include environmental awareness in contemporary Australian children s books drama as a means for developing environmental awareness a curriculum offering about a hypothetical township entitled Walmit Divided and the use of videotaped environmental conflict simulations as a teaching tool Section 3 focuses on the outdoors as a medium for environmental education and describes techniques for heightening student s awareness of their surroundings through the Pilot Environmental Education Project the Primary Environmental Education Project and the Urban Field Study Centre The final section describes a third grade environmental education curriculum and suggests ideas for using community gardening and animals in environmental education activities

LH Environmental Education, 1981 Arranged in three sections the book offers practical techniques for introducing environmental education at the secondary level The first section on planning outlines a conceptual framework for environmental education discusses development of school policy on environmental education provides approaches to controversial and values issues presents ways for developing school grounds for environmental education and describes an environment week festival The second section arranged in three parts gives examples of ways in which environmental education has been and can be implemented in school programs Topics focus on discussing language development as the major means by which we make meaning of our environment integrating the humanities and home economics in environmental education and using drama games and simulations in environmental education programs Part 2 emphasizes urban studies and studying and interacting with the local urban environment Specific activities involving community action are described Part 3 focuses on the implementation of environmental education in the field through school camps and field study centers and gives examples of possible junior secondary outdoor activities

LH Environmental Education Alice D. Lindler, South Carolina. Office of General Education. Curriculum Development Section, 1976 Environmental Ethics Bob Jickling, Heila Lotz-Sisitka, Lausanne Olvitt, Rob O'Donoghue, Ingrid Schudel, Dylan McGarry, Blair Niblett, 2021-12-07 This well constructed and highly original sourcebook integrates educational materials for teaching environmental ethics with theoretical reflections The book is set to contribute immensely to its aim of taking ethics out of philosophy departments and putting it into the streets into villages and on the Earth to make ethics an everyday activity not something left to experts and specialists Context based activities are presented in almost every chapter While it acknowledges foundational theories in environmental ethics and the work that they continue to do it wholeheartedly embraces a growing body of literature that emphasises contextual process oriented and place based approaches to ethical reflection deliberation and action It walks on the ground and isn t afraid to get a little dirty or to seek joy in earthly relationships And it ultimately breaks with much Western academic tradition by framing ethics in a storied world thus making room to move beyond Euro American perspectives in environmental issues This work will be of interest to school teachers and other non formal and informal educators teacher educators college instructors university professors and other professionals who wish to bring environmental ethics to the forefront of their pedagogical practices

Embracing the Track of Appearance: An Emotional Symphony within Environmental Education A Sourcebook

In some sort of eaten by displays and the ceaseless chatter of fast transmission, the melodic splendor and emotional symphony produced by the written word often disappear in to the back ground, eclipsed by the persistent noise and disturbances that permeate our lives. But, nestled within the pages of Environmental Education A Sourcebook a marvelous fictional value overflowing with raw feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful musician of language, that charming masterpiece conducts viewers on a mental journey, skillfully unraveling the hidden tunes and profound affect resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of the moving assessment, we shall investigate the book is main harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing model, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
