Guilt with Honor Jeffrey Ashford, 1982      The Macabresque Edward Weisband, 2017-10-05

Studies of genocide and mass atrocity most often focus on their causes and consequences their aims and effects and the number of people killed But the question remains if the main goal is death then why is torture necessary This book argues that genocide and mass atrocity are committed not as an end in themselves but as a means to pursue sustained and systemic torture the spectacle of violence against its victims Extermination is not the only or even the primary goal of genocidal campaigns In The Macabresque Edward Weisband looks at different episodes of mass violence Chinese Cultural Revolution the Holocaust post Ottoman Turkey Cambodia Rwanda and Bosnia among other instances to consider why different methods of violence were used in each and how they related to the particular cultural milieu in which they were perpetrated He asserts that it is not accidental that certain images capture our memory as emblematic of specific genocides or mass atrocities the death marches of the Armenian genocide mass starvation in the Ukraine the killing apparatus and laboratories of the Holocaust the killing fields of Cambodia because such violence assumes a kind of style each time and place it arises Weisband looks at these variations in terms of their aesthetic or dramaturgical style or what he calls the macabresque The macabresque is ever present in genocide and mass atrocity across time place and episode Beyond the horrors of lethality it is the defining feature of concentration and or death camps detention centers prisons ghettos killing fields and the houses schools and hospitals converted into hubs for torture Macabresque dramaturgy also assumes many aesthetic forms all designed to inflict hideous pain and humiliating punishments sometimes in controlled environments but also during frenzied moments of staged public horror These kinds of performative violations permit perpetrators to revel in their absolute power but simultaneously to project hatred revenge and revulsion onto victims who embody the shame humiliation and loss felt by their torturers By understanding how and why mass violence occurs and the reasons for its variations The Macabresque aims to explain why so many seemingly normal or ordinary people participate in mass atrocity across cultures and why such egregious violence occurs repeatedly through history

Betraying Dignity Orit Kamir, 2019-10-31

What do medieval knights suicide bombers and victimhood culture have in common Betraying Dignity argues that in the second decade of the twenty first century individuals political parties and nations around the world are abandoning the dignity based culture we established in the aftermath of two world wars less than a century ago Disappointed or intimidated many turn their backs on the humanitarian universalistic culture that presumes our inherent human dignity and celebrates it as the basis of every individual s equal human rights Instead people and nations are returning to a much older honor based cultural structure Because its ancient logic and mentality take new forms such as social network shaming and certain aspects of victimhood culture we fail to recognize them and overlook the pitfalls of the old honor based structure Narrating the history of honor based societies this book distinguishes their underlying principle from the post WWII notion of dignity that underlies human rights It makes the case that in order to revive and strengthen dignity based culture the concept of human dignity must be defined narrowly and succinctly and enhanced with the principle of respect Continuing its historical and cultural narrative the book discusses contemporary phenomena such as al Qaeda terrorists shaming via social network FoMO and some features of the emerging victimhood culture The book pays homage to Erich Fromm s classic Escape from Freedom The SAGE Encyclopedia of Intercultural Competence Janet M. Bennett,2015-03-23 In 1980 SAGE published Geert Hofstede s Culture s Consequences It opens with a quote from Blaise Pascal There are truths on this side of the Pyrenees that are falsehoods on the other The book became a classic one of the most cited sources in the Social Science Citation Index and subsequently appeared in a second edition in 2001 This new SAGE Encyclopedia of Intercultural Competence picks up on themes explored in that book Cultural competence refers to the set of attitudes practices and policies that enables a person or agency to work well with people from differing cultural groups Other related terms include cultural sensitivity transcultural skills diversity competence and multicultural expertise What defines a culture What barriers might block successful communication between individuals or agencies of differing cultures How can those barriers be understood and navigated to enhance intercultural communication and understanding These questions and more are explained within the pages of this new reference work Key Features 300 to 350 entries organized in A to Z fashion in two volumes Signed entries that conclude with Cross References and Suggestions for Further Readings Thematic Reader s Guide in the front matter grouping related entries by broad topic areas Chronology that provides a historical perspective of the development of cultural competence as a discrete field of study Resources appendix and a comprehensive Index The SAGE Encyclopedia of Intercultural Competence is an authoritative and rigorous source on intercultural competence and related issues making it a must have reference for all academic libraries

Undergraduates Richard Henry Edwards,Joseph Manson Artman,Galen Merriam Fisher,1928 Four Overarching Patterns of Culture Robert Strauss,Christopher Strauss,2019 Justice has been the dominant cultural framework of people in the West for two centuries ever since the rise of constitutional democracies Consciously or not most people in the West have a strong awareness of right and wrong Their sense of morality is generally rooted in an obligation to the rule of law In democratic societies the rule of law ultimately relies on constitutional documents ratified by a widely accepted process of development and implementation For millennia honor has been the dominant cultural framework of most people in the East and Middle East Here people know that speech and behavior display respect or disrespect While pervasive in all relationships honor and shame are most important in the family extended family and local community In the East honor is not necessarily an internal feeling as it is in a justice culture Honor is more often an external attribution bestowed by others rather than claimed by oneself Harmony is prevalent globally in indigenous cultures Many indigenous peoples do not distinguish between the supernatural and natural worlds All aspects of life are connected Interactions with spirit beings are the key to maintaining harmony in order to be secure Reciprocity is a common cultural framework in the Global South Here one learns to develop connections with the right people in given circumstances for needed resources These connections may or may not be characterized as friendships and provide not so much close friendships as reciprocal exchange In some places reciprocity is the means whereby one survives American Lumberman ,1912 Weaving Words, Shaping Worlds Azka Khan,2025-11-13 Intertextuality as an Evaluative Strategy in Pakistani Anglophone Fiction explores how Pakistani Anglophone novels engage with prior texts to shape meaning reinforce themes and position narratives within larger ideological frameworks The author argues that these literary references whether historical religious or cultural are not neutral but serve evaluative and often subversive functions Using corpus assisted discourse analysis the book uncovers patterns in how authors like Kamila Shamsie and Nadeem Aslam incorporate and reframe existing texts It highlights how certain motifs and allusions are repeatedly employed to construct narratives that align with or challenge dominant hegemonic discourses The study also examines how these references contribute to thematic ghettoization reinforcing a recurring mold within Pakistani Anglophone fiction New York Supreme Court: Appellate Division - First Department , The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass Nikolaus Gehr,1902 Honor, Shame, and Guilt Daniel Y.
