Gunma Museum:

Gunma Museum Philip Drew, Arata Isozaki, 1996-10-10 Arata Isozaki is one of the most prolific and creative personalities in contemporary architecture. The Museum of Modern Art Gunma arguably the architect's masterwork was the first in a line of commissions for modern and contemporary art museums on a worldwide scale. Completed in 1974 it was refurbished and extended by Isozaki in 1994. The museum is located in the rural surroundings of the Gunma no Mori park and is the most complete realization by Isozaki of conceptual architectural approach: a pristine essential structure composed of an arrangement of cubes taking the form of a large rectangular block with projecting wings. The 1994 addition consists of a cube added to the main entrance facade housing the new Highvision Theatre and a restaurant which occupies part of the area beneath one of the wings.

Manet and Modern Beauty Gloria Groom, 2019-06-25 This stunning examination of the last years of Édouard Manet's life and career is the first book to explore the transformation of his style and subject matter in the 1870s and early 1880s. The name Manet often evokes the provocative heroically scaled pictures he painted in the 1860s for the Salon but in the late 1870s and early 1880s the artist produced quite a different body of work: stylish portraits of actresses and demimondaines, luscious still lifes, delicate pastels, intimate watercolors and impressionistic scenes of suburban gardens and Parisian cafés. Often dismissed as too pretty and superficial by critics, these later works reflect Manet's elegant social world. Manet and Modern Beauty propose a radical new alignment of modern art with fashionable femininity and record the artist's unapologetic embrace of beauty and visual pleasure in the face of death. Featuring nearly three hundred illustrations and nine fascinating essays by established and emerging Manet specialists, a technical analysis of the late Salon painting Jeanne Spring, a selection of the artist's correspondence, a chronology and more, Manet and Modern Beauty brings a diverse range of approaches to bear on a little studied area of this major artist's oeuvre.

Surrealism and Photography in 1930s Japan Jelena Stojkovic, 2020-05-31 Despite the censorship of dissident material during the decade between the Manchurian Incident of 1931 and the outbreak of the Pacific War in 1941, a number of photographers across Japan produced a versatile body of Surrealist work. In a pioneering study of their practice, Jelena Stojkovic draws on primary sources and extensive archival research and maps out art historical and critical contexts relevant to the apprehension of this rich photographic output, most of which is previously unseen outside of its country of origin.
