Gumdrop Floats Away, 1985 At high tide Joe's puppy Horace floats away in his vintage car Gumdrop APOLLO: A Decade of Achievement Paul I. Casey, 2013-10-25 The race for space begins on October 4, 1957 as the Soviet Union stuns the world and launches the first man-made satellite a feat until then only read about in science fiction America is caught unprepared for 1957 and must answer this embarrassment to the world by proving its superiority however each time America tries to launch a satellite let alone test a new rocket it fails How could America have taken a back seat in the missile race How did America take the lead and win the race to the moon in as little as ten years How did America gain the necessary technology and ingenuity to not only launch men into outer space but also land them on the moon and safely return Why did man even go to the moon How has the space program affected our lives today Casey spent his life researching the space program and interviewing many people involved in it from scientists to astronauts to find answers to these questions Casey an accomplished technical writer astronomy columnist and artist began to write this book after he was inspired as a young child when he witnessed along with the rest of the world Apollo 11 land three men on the moon in 1969 Casey enjoyed educating students about the space program and wrote this book to share an enthusiasm about science especially for those never thought about looking up at the night sky and wondering about the stars Casey wanted students to ask questions and to gain a perspective on how incredible science is But mostly he wanted to inspire students to pursue a career in science to continue the peaceful exploration of space for generations to come Gumdrop and the Birthday Surprise, 1986 Gumdrop the antique car helps catch the post office van so that Joe his owner can mail an important letter Something about the Author Joyce Nakamura, 1991-09-27 A collection of autobiographical essays written by prominent authors and illustrators of books for children and young adults The Race James Schefter, 2010-06-30 Indispensable to anyone interested in the space race Houston Chronicle In 1963 a young reporter for Time Life named James Schefter was given a dream job cover America's race to the moon Since the astronauts were under contract to Life for their stories Schefter was given complete access to the biggest players at NASA But at the time his primary role was to excite the public about the new expensive experimental space program and he couldn't write about everything he saw In The Race he does From drunken astronaut escapades to near disasters to ferocious political battles the race to the moon was anything but the smooth process it appeared There were vicious fights between the engineers feuds and practical jokes near fatal accidents and dozens of brave smart and colorful characters pulling off the greatest exploration in the history of humankind Like Undaunted Courage and D Day this is a tale of achieving the extraordinary against extraordinary odds As incredible as the official story of the space program is the true behind-the-scenes tale is more thrilling more entertaining and ultimately more ennobling Major Authors and Illustrators for Children and Young Adults Joyce Nakamura, 1993 Contains updated and revised sketches on nearly 800 of the most widely read authors and illustrators appearing in Gale's Something about the author series
