Excess Of Love:

Practice of Perfection and Christian Virtues Alfonso Rodríguez,1929 Making Love Paul Kelleher,2015-07-16 In Making Love Sentiment and Sexuality in Eighteenth Century British Literature Paul Kelleher revises the history of sexuality from the vantage point of the literary history of sentimentalism Kelleher demonstrates how eighteenth century British philosophers essayists and novelists fundamentally reconceived the relations among sentiment sexuality and moral virtue It is his contention that sentimental discourse both philosophical and literary posited heterosexual desire as the precondition of moral feeling and conduct The author further suggests that sentimental writers fashioned the ideal of conjugal love as an ideological antidote to the theories of self love and self interest found in the works of Thomas Hobbes and Bernard Mandeville Heterosexual desire and its culmination in conjugal love in other words were represented as the privileged means for an individual to transcend self love and to develop a moral sensibility attuned to the thoughts and feelings of others At the same time Kelleher suggests other pleasures and desires particularly those rooted in same sex eroticism were increasingly depicted as antithetical to conjugal love and thus were morally devalued and socially disenfranchised Kelleher s argument unfolds through close readings of a variety of texts including Shaftesbury s Characteristics of Men Manners Opinions Times Joseph Addison and Richard Steele s the Tatler and the Spectator Eliza Haywood s Love in Excess Samuel Richardson s Pamela and Henry Fielding s Tom Jones Although these texts embody diverse rhetorical strategies and thematic concerns he shows how they collectively reinforce an overarching sentimental ideology on the one hand heterosexual desire and conjugal love become synonymous with sympathy benevolence and moral goodness while on the other hand same sex desire is pathologized as a selfish withdrawal from procreation domesticity sociability and ultimately humanity itself Repertorium

Finished Samuel Idire,2023-08-05 To many Christians living the life of a Christian is a struggle to attain the standard of righteousness acceptable to God This makes them carry a sense of guilt around and instead of enjoying the good life of liberty that our Lord Jesus Christ came to give all mankind they keep punishing themselves while waiting for a future date to enjoy that life This book was written to inform the reader that Christ declared that it is finished and all you need to do is believe in His Word and enjoy your new life as a born again child of God Christianity was never designed to be a religion of daily struggles to meet a particular standard Christ met and exceeded the standards for us to ride on His wings and Hebrews 4 14 16 attests to this fact I do hope you will enjoy this book as long as you keep an open heart and meditate on its content Remain blessed If this book has blessed you and you want to contact the publisher to speak at your events you may contact him directly at Email idiresamuel yahoo ca Phone 17059707261
